Meet Ed & Jeff Frawley of Leerburg® Enterprises, Inc.

Leerburg Enterprises, Inc. is a family owned business that was started in 1980 by Ed Frawley. Ed has owned and trained dogs since 1960. He began breeding dogs in 1978 and producing training videos in 1980.

Cindy Rhodes began training dogs when she was 13. She has competed in AKC & CKC obedience and Schutzhund. In 1990, she competed in the USA SchH 3 Nationals with a Doberman female she raised from a puppy. She has bred Dobermans & Malinois under the kennel name Kaiserhaus since the late 80's. Cindy has raised and trained dogs of many different breeds, Belgian Tervuren, Shetland Sheepdog, Welsh Corgi, Doberman, Belgian Malinois and most recently, Border Terrier. Her sports of choice now are Mondioring and Agility. Cindy was also a professional dog groomer for 15 years.

Ed continued to breed working bloodline German Shepherds for 30 years and retired from breeding a few years ago so he could spend more time on Leerburg.

During the early 1980's Ed competed in AKC obedience and tracking competitions. In the mid-80's he competed in Schutzhund. He titled a number of dogs in these sports. In the late 80's he started training police service dogs and from 1990 to 2000 Ed was a K9 handler on the local Sheriff's Department.

Throughout the years Ed has continued to produce dog training videos; over 730 of which are still available on Leerburg's Video on Demand (over 650 are free streams).

In 1994, Ed went online with Leerburg.com. Leerburg was one of the first dog related web sites on the internet. It has grown into the largest dog training web site on the internet with over 17,500 pages. The Leerburg Webboard is a free dog training forum that has over 19,200 registered members and more than 370,000 searchable posts in its archives.

From the very beginning Ed's philosophy on selling dog related products was to only offer products he would use to train his dogs. He knew there were dog trainers that insisted on quality products and he chose to fill that niche. Leerburg has never tried to compete with the big box retail stores or the pet food warehouses of the world. Leerburg's reputation has been built on customer service and quality products.

Ed and Cindy have three sons. The oldest, Eric, lives in Houston and works in the commercial diving industry. The youngest, Andrew, left for basic training in the Air Force in the fall of 2012.

In October of 2011 Jeff Frawley, Ed Frawley's son, came to work here at Leerburg. After 7 1/2 years of military service, including tours in Iraq and Afghanistan, Jeff left the army. Jeff served in every position of an airborne infantry platoon with the 82nd Airborne from rifleman up to a squad leader. During his years of military service Jeff also spent time training cadets at West Point.

Jeff grew up here at Leerburg and has lived with dogs his entire life. He was even on the cover of one of our Leerburg catalogs 20 years ago when he was just 6 years old. When Jeff was 8 years old, his first job was at Leerburg, for $1 per hour, as chief socializer of puppies. When he was 10 years old, he began helping Ed in the kennel. By the time he was 14, he had helped deliver more litters of German Shepherd puppies than we can remember. During his high school years, Jeff went with Ed as a cameraman and filmed a number of training seminars and dog shows.

In addition to being Leerburg's new business manager, Jeff's responsibilities will include producing dog training videos and short commercials on Leerburg's products. We are very excited about the addition of Jeff to our Leerburg team.

2. Purchase a Leerburg DVD
3. Get INSTANT Access to Your DVD Purchase Through Leerburg's Video on Demand

In 2011, Leerburg launched our new online streaming video application, Leerburg On Demand. We currently offer over 730 videos, with more being added every week. Over 650 of these videos are free for everyone to watch, and users who sign up for a free Leerburg account will be able to purchase and watch streaming video versions of our DVDs as well. These videos are available immediately upon purchase, with no waiting or downloading required, and you can watch them as many times as you want. In addition, registered users can rate and write reviews for all our videos.

The material found in our videos is not available on any other dog training website. In addition to streaming our Leerburg DVDs, we offer exclusive content such as lectures by Michael Ellis and footage of historically significant dog competitions previously available only on VHS. You can also watch any of the videos featured in our bi-weekly newsletter for free.

Leerburg On Demand is available on computers, iPads, and iPhones with high-speed or broadband internet access. All purchased videos are tied to the user's account, and can be accessed anywhere by simply logging in. This cuts out the hassle of keeping track of DVDs and eliminates shipping costs altogether.

Instant Access When You Purchase a DVD

We're very excited about Leerburg On Demand because we believe online streaming is the future of the video industry. From now on, whenever you purchase any of our Leerburg DVDs you will have the option to get free instant access to any videos you've purchased, including our DVD sets. This means you can begin watching your video immediately after checking out, before the DVD even arrives in the mail. To take advantage of this, all you need to do is sign up and log in with a free Leerburg account. This is especially beneficial for our international customers who would otherwise have to wait weeks for their shipment to arrive.

Purchase A Streaming Video and Save on the DVD

If you purchase a streaming video and decide you would like to own the DVD as well, you can put the amount you paid for the streaming video toward the DVD purchase. When you buy the streaming version of any of our DVDs, you will automatically receive a personal, single-use coupon code for the amount you already paid off the price of the DVD. If you paid $35.00 for the streaming version of a $40.00 DVD, you can use the coupon to save $35.00 on the DVD purchase. If the streaming video is the same price as the DVD, you can purchase the DVD for free and will only have to pay the cost of shipping.

We have put a lot of time and effort into developing this revolutionary new streaming video application and we're very proud of the way it has turned out. You can find Leerburg On Demand on our website at leerburg.com/flix. To learn more, check out our FAQ page at leerburg.com/flix/faq.php.

Over the years, this DVD has been one of our most popular training videos for new puppy owners.

The first version of this video was produced in the late 1980's. The version we sell today is an updated production that was completed in late 2010. Over the years we find better ways to raise puppies. These ideas are passed on in the new releases of this DVD.

This training video answers all the questions new puppy owners have concerning the care of their new puppy. Ed Frawley has been breeding dogs since 1978.

Over the years Ed has been asked just about every question a new puppy owner can think to ask. This DVD was originally produced to be given to every Leerburg Puppy Customer. The intent was to help Leerburg Puppy Customers get through the first 8 months of the puppy's life.

Even though Leerburg bred German Shepherds, this training video is not just a German Shepherd training video. It is an all-breed video. "Your Puppy 8 Weeks to 8 Months" is sold to breeders all over the world who breed many different kinds of dogs. These breeders then give the video to their puppy customers. If you are a dog breeder, see leerburg.com/breedersdiscount.htm for our wholesale pricing.

The goal of this video is to teach people how to train their own dog to become a well-mannered family pet. Our DVD was last updated in early 2007. It was originally produced in 1982 and has gone through a number of updates. With each release, it gets better and better.

The problem with taking your dog to obedience class is that the dog is expected to learn new commands under extreme distraction (i.e. when it is surrounded by 10 or 20 other dogs). This is not the correct way to train a dog. In fact, it's totally unfair to the dog.

There are four phases to dog training: the learning phase, the correction phase, the proofing phase, and the maintenance phase.

In the learning phase new commands should be introduced in a distraction free environment; like your kitchen or your back yard or an environment that the dog is used to living in. We teach new commands through positive motivation. During this phase we never correct the dog for not performing the command. It would be unfair to give a correction during this phase because the dog has not yet learned the meaning of the command.

When the dog has learned a command but then refuses to do it, it is time to move into the correction phase of training. This is where the dog learns that if it does not do what it is told to do, it will get a correction. Every dog is different; our video shows how to determine when to give corrections and what level of correction to give different dogs.

When the dog consistently performs obedience commands at home, it is ready for the distraction or proofing stage. During this phase we teach the dog that it must mind no matter where it is or what is going on around it. This means it must follow your commands when people come to your house, when other dogs are around, when on a walk, or when playing with toys.

Dog training never ends. It is in the maintenance phase of training that our dogs learn that we are always constant in our expectations. We show them that we always expect them to follow our commands.

We strongly recommend people establish pack structure before they begin formal obedience training. If you are a new dog owner your goal should be to create a calm submissive dog. The road to accomplishing this is explained in our DVD titled Establishing Pack Structure with the Family Pet. That is why we recommend that new dogs owners get both Basic Obedience and our Establishing Pack Structure DVD.

Every new puppy owner has the same image of what they want their new dog to be like as an adult. First and foremost, everyone wants a great relationship with their dog but beyond that, those who plan on keeping their dog in their home want a calm, well-mannered, obedient house dog that minds and respects their family and friends.

Those who plan on keeping their dog outside want a calm well-mannered dog that is respectful to the family and is quiet in the yard or kennel. They only want their dog to bark at strangers that come near the home. New dog owners think the road to success only involves obedience training and house training new puppies.

Don't get me wrong--puppies need to be house trained and they need obedience training--but these are only two small parts of a much larger program needed to produce calm, obedient, well-mannered, respectful house dogs that have a good relationship with their owners.

Let me give you a few facts to think about which will help make my point.

We start with the misconception of "how obedience training leads to a well-mannered house dog." The best training system there is involves multiple short training sessions throughout the day.

Training 4 or 5 times a day for 2 to 3 minutes in a session is much more effective than training one 20 minute session a day. Training 5 times a day for 3 minutes at a time is 15 minutes. What about the other 23 hours and 45 minutes in the day? What happens with those who happen to get a challenging puppy -- one that bites, barks, is a little wild or a little too independent?

Local obedience classes teach very specific behaviors: sit, down, come, stay, and walk on a leash. The problem with young puppies is they cannot and should not be expected to perform a behavior (like a down stay) for long periods of time. With training we can expect compliance for up to 30 seconds but not much longer.

We compare puppies to 2-year-old children. What do we expect in compliance from human babies? Not much. The same goes for our puppies. Many new dog owners totally miss this very valid point.

The Power of Training Dogs with Markers with Ed Frawley

Marker training (or clicker training) is one of the most profound systems of training dogs that I have seen in my 50 years of owning, breeding and training working dogs. I had been training dogs for almost 45 years when I started to learn this system. I felt like a kid in a candy store when I saw how well it worked and the attitude of my dogs that were being trained with markers. The fact is I still feel like that when I see dogs work with markers.

Dog training is a learned skill. The goal of this DVD is to introduce dog trainers to the details of training with markers. Trainers must understand the details of this system if they are to be successful. Once they grasp the concept and learn to apply it to their dog training they will create dogs that become problem solvers and dogs that love training. Once trainers learn how to apply the fundamentals of marker training the concept can be applied to any dog sport, including bite work.

You can get a feel for the content of this DVD by going to my web site and reading the article I wrote on The Power of Training with Markers (leerburg.com/markers.htm).

Marker training can be started on 8 week old puppies or 6 year old dominant rescue dogs. It is a purely positive method of training dogs that is 100% non-confrontational. That is one of the reasons it can work with dominant dogs. This system goes a long way towards building or repairing the bond between handler and dog.

While I sincerely believe that training dogs with the motivational methods of marker training is the best way to train a dog, I also believe that this work needs to be balanced by introducing corrections into the more advanced training. Purists would argue this point but in my DVD I discuss when and how certain dogs need corrections.

If you have trained dogs for years and think you are pretty good but you do not work with the marker system, I suggest you take a few days and study this DVD. You too may find a whole new method of K9 communication and it may re-ignite a fire in your belly to get out and train.

Establishing Pack Structure with the Family Pet

New pet owners are often told the road to a calm, submissive dog is to attend obedience classes & socialize. We don't agree with this. All dogs are pack animals. Every breed of dog is wired with genetic pack instincts. They genetically want to establish leadership and rank within their pack.

The road to a calm submissive dog is to first establish pack structure and leadership. Once leadership has been determined, a dog can then be obedience trained. Establishing pack structure means teaching the dog that he now lives in your family pack and that you are his pack leader. This process also teaches the dog that YOU set rules that he must live by. Once a dog accepts your leadership and your rules he becomes a calm, happy dog. When a dog accepts a pack leader he is also more willing to listen and follow directions during obedience training.

This DVD teaches the way I establish pack structure with a new dog when I bring it into my home. The goal is to establish leadership and still allow the dog to maintain his dignity. When I introduce my rules I do so in ways that create a level of communication and respect.

If your dog is growling at you, your family members, or anyone else, then you need to take steps to control this aggression. Every year hundreds of thousands of dogs go through obedience classes. Most of dominant dogs that go through these classes come out just as dominant as before they started. The reason for this is that instructors and owners do not address issues of pack drive and rank within the pack. This DVD was produced to help people analyze their dog's aggression problems. It provides information to help owners solve these problems. Many think the solution to dominance and aggression is through positive motivation. These people are almost always wrong. The best solution is always through respect and leadership.

This DVD provides enough information to help dog owners either solve these problems themselves or be in a position to determine if a local individual is qualified to assist in their dominant or aggressive dog problems. If your dog is becoming animal aggressive and you want to learn how to live with and control an aggressive dog this DVD will help you.

How to Raise a Working Puppy

with Ed Frawley

1 Hour, 15 Minutes
leerburg.com/117.htm

DVD | #117-D $40.00
 Video on Demand | #S117 $25.00

There is a big difference between how one should raise a working puppy and how pet owners raise their pets. Working puppies are expected to look at their world with more self confidence. It does not make any difference if you are raising an IPO puppy, a police service dog puppy, a puppy for personal protection work, or a puppy for competition obedience or agility. They can all benefit by making some simple changes in how they are brought up and handled.

This is not a bite training video. It is a video teaching people how we used to raise our pups here at Leerburg. This video outlines a step-by-step manner how to socialize, imprint, and prepare your puppy for his or her working career. This is a common sense approach that anyone can do. The key to raising a successful working puppy is to have a plan and make the best use of the time you spend with your dog. An example of this is: one can take their pup for a walk and have it just be exercised; or one can take their pup for a walk and make it an experience in which the pup gets exercise, along with a chance to learn MARKERS and be introduced to environments that provide a small level of stress for the pup to learn to work through.

This DVD was completely redone and released at the beginning of 2013. This is the first DVD in the Building Drive and Focus Series with Michael Ellis. The foundation of Michael's dog training system lies in marker training. The power of his system lies in how markers are applied within his training program. Unlike trainers who claim they can train every dog with 100% positive motivational methods, we know for a fact that corrections should have a place in any serious dog training program. They are required to guarantee reliability under distractions. Trainers often talk about how to establish focus with a dog. Michael calls this work "engagement." He makes the point that the quickest way to teach a dog exercises is to first train a dog to get and stay engaged with his handler in every environment.

We show you how to take your dog out into new and distracting environments and have a dog that ignores the distractions and maintains an attitude of "What kind of fun things are we going to do here today?" When you can establish a relationship like this, you have a dog that is ready to learn behaviors and exercises. Stop for a minute and think about that statement. If your dog is distracted, if your dog doesn't want to be where he is, how are you going to train him to do anything? That answer is you only have two options: you either back up your training and engage the dog; or you revert to old school yank and crank dog training.

There are good reasons to teach positions correctly. We will explain long term benefits of the dog learning to sit, down and stand Michael's way. Michael will explain why training positions in the order he recommends will have positive effects throughout the training career of your dog whether you are training a pet or a high level competition dog. At the end of this DVD we explain the point where and why trainers should start to use toys as rewards in training.

This is the second DVD in the Building Drive and Focus series with Michael Ellis. The first DVD, The Power of Training Dogs with Food, (#220-2-D) and this DVD, teach new trainers how to establish the foundation of Michael's training system on their dogs. Once that is accomplished, the principles of Michael's system can be used to teach a dog any exercise.

Michael's system is based on marker training or operant conditioning. If you are new to markers or new to Michael Ellis' system of dog training, I would recommend you view the free 1 hour streaming video of Michael lecturing on his philosophy of dog training in the streaming video section of our web site. leerburg.com/flix/

You should also review the free 87 page eBook I wrote titled "The Power of Training Dogs with Markers." It's in the list of free eBooks on our web site. leerburg.com/dogtrainingbooks.htm

This DVD opens with Michael's lecture on why and how to play tug with your dog. Michael will demonstrate technique with his dog Pi and then the rest of the DVD uses untrained dogs and untrained handlers.

For the tug to be used as an obedience reward with your dog, you must have 3 things. Your dog must tug with enthusiasm, out when told to out on the first command, and bring the tug back after you release it. The goal of our video is to train dog handlers to accomplish these 3 things.

If your goal with your dog is to do competition obedience, agility work, or to get involved in one of the biting sports, playing tug the right way is an integral part for all those endeavors.

This is the latest in Leerburg's series of training videos done with Michael Ellis. It is a training video that follows Michael's curriculum for his course on Motivation and Play at his school for dog trainers in California. The work in this video teaches a trainer the advanced concepts of how to motivate a dog. The techniques work for dogs of all breeds both large and small, and can be used for any dog sport, including agility, obedience, and protection. The goal of this training is to teach dog trainers how to turn a reward into an event for their dog. Once trainers can learn these skills, they can manipulate the motivation and drive of their dogs.

The chapters for this training video are Moving Skills Without a Dog, Rewards as an Interactive Event, Techniques for Increasing Motivation, Borrowing Techniques From the World of Protection Sports, How To Manage Your Dog's Genetics, and Establishing Rules.

In Moving Skills Without a Dog, Michael introduces trainers to movement skills they can learn without their dog to help develop and increase a dog's motivation and drive. Trainers will learn about different types of drills they can use. He covers backing, lateral, line, luring, weight shifting and balancing drills. Trainers will also learn skills used without a dog, including tug and toy presentation, and how to handle, hold and deliver food. They will also learn why to use straight line targeting and the problems with hooking, why getting bitten is bad for the handler and the dog's motivation, and how and why misses happen.

Rewards as an Interactive Event covers how movement is reinforced during a reward, the difference between a reward event and normal behavior, the difference between hunger drive and movement-based prey rewards, and how the variable duration of a reward event affects reinforcement pause and attention. Trainers will learn how to use auditory stimulators to increase motivation and why chasing and searching are better than having. It also examines the behaviors of tugging, chasing, and eating.

In Increasing Motivation, Michael covers how to increase motivation using tools such as restraint and frustration, hunger, and social isolation. He also explains how to use patterns of arousal levels through classical conditioning, and examines which activities can intensify through rehearsal, and which ones don't. In addition, he explains how trainers can restrict and channel a dog's energy use, and which toys and treats are appropriate. He talks about violating a dog's expectations and whether or not to use food and toys in the same training session. He also covers how to balance possession without creating a conflict.

Borrowing Techniques From the World of Protection Sports includes an examination of techniques used in protection sports that can be applied here. Michael revisits the motivational techniques of restraint and frustration, using back pressure to build motivation, building the strike factor, targeting, and auditory stimulation. He also explains the concept of letting the dog win.

This is our third in the Michael Ellis series of training DVDs. We feel it's the best one yet. The training information in this video is revolutionary in the world of dog training.

Michael's motivational system of training dogs is based in marker training. You can visit the FREE streaming video section of our web site and listen to Michael's 7-part lecture on his method of dog training.

The foundation for the work in this focused heeling DVD is covered in the 9 1/2 hours of instruction featured in our two earlier DVDs, The Power of Training Dogs with Food and The Power of Playing Tug with Your Dog, that were done with Michael.

The old "yank and crank" methods of training heeling have gone by the wayside. The fact is a good portion of the training in this DVD can be done without a leash and without corrections. In fact, introducing corrections is the very last step in focused heeling.

A full outline of this DVD is available online.

We feel that the work in this DVD is revolutionary. I started going to competitive training seminars in 1974 and have never stopped. I have never been exposed to concepts that even come close to the work in this DVD.

Training dogs to give to pressure is revolutionary in the field of dog training. It teaches young dogs how to live with stress. The concept of "learning how to give to pressure" has been around for years in horse training, no one has introduced it into the world of dog training like Michael Ellis.

This DVD will cover how to prepare your dog for a competition. People have asked, "What kind of competition?" The answer is every type of dog sport competition. This new DVD will teach people who train with markers (conditioned reinforcement) how to wean their dog off food rewards and/or toy rewards in preparation for taking their dog into any dog sport competition. This is an extremely important skill to learn because to do it correctly and still maintain motivation and drive is an art form.

The DVD is also going to teach trainers how to introduce their dog to punishments. We will explain when it is appropriate and when it is inappropriate to use punishment. We will also explain how to approach this work based on the temperament and the drive of individual dogs. Internal dogs are trained differently than external dogs; hard dogs are trained differently than soft dogs. Trainers must learn how to tailor their training program according to the temperament, the genetics, and the drive levels of their dog.

Our training is directed to those who use a positive training system, or in other words, those who use a foundation of markers or clickers in their work.

DVD Outline

- 1) Introduction:
- 2) Definition of Terms
- 3) Rewards: Methods for reducing the rate/number of rewards. YOU NEVER ELIMINATE THEM.
- 4) Punishment: Types, concerns, and our philosophy on punishment (punishment is punishment!)
- 5) Concerns
- 6) Tangents and topics of general interest

This DVD with Michael Ellis was finished in June of 2010. It is by far the most comprehensive step-by-step training DVD on teaching a dog to retrieve that we have ever seen. It has replaced both of our previous retrieval training DVDs.

If you are a student of marker training or interested in marker training you will love Michael Ellis' approach to this work. Because the system is founded in markers, there is a very minimal amount of force used in our training. It is our belief that a dog should not be force trained to retrieve.

We recommend the viewer have an understanding of marker training before beginning this work. This is all covered in the earlier DVDs we have done with Michael Ellis.

In our opinion, no one is ever going to reinvent a better training system on teaching a dog to retrieve than what we have detailed in this training DVD. Michael's system can be used for AKC obedience, for Schutzhund trainers, for any of the ring sport trainers and even field trial retriever enthusiasts.

The DVD opens with an excellent lecture on the concept and training steps for the send away by Michael Ellis. This lecture was filmed at Michael's school on advanced obedience in California. There is a chapter on working with puppies and a chapter on when to use touch pads vs. a toy. There is also a chapter on training the whistle back (for the ring sports). There is an excellent section on retraining a Schutzhund dog to Michael's system of training the send away and an excellent chapter in which Michael reviews his system.

Michael has included many, many training steps that cover different types of dogs. He discusses how you approach the training for the high drive dogs and he explains what trainers need to change in their training program to accommodate lower drive dogs.

The beauty of this training DVD is that it has something for the advanced trainer and as well as a step by step program that new trainers can follow.

This DVD is by far the best step-by-step training video on how to teach your dog to jump that we have ever seen.

Michael Ellis' system of dog training has its foundation in marker training (operant conditioning). When Michael teaches the jumps, it is all done through motivational methods, there are no corrections. We recommend that trainers know and understand the foundation of food and tug training that's covered in The Power of Training Dogs with Food and The Power of Playing Tug with Your Dog before attempting to teach their dog to jump.

In this jump DVD, Michael explains in detail how to manage your dog's drive during the jumping process. When handlers put their dogs in too much drive the dogs jump flat and have difficulty in jumping. This DVD explains how to determine how much drive your dog needs to learn to jump. Some lower drive dogs need to have their drive increased while high drive dogs need their training steps modified to allow them to concentrate on what you are asking them to do.

Teaching Protection Skills without a Decoy with Michael Ellis

This DVD is an in-depth, step by step study of Michael's system on establishing the foundation of biting skills without a helper or decoy. Trainers only need a friend or family member that will handle a bite wedge, a bite tug or a high value toy to assist them in rewarding correct behavior.

The value of the training methods we show are that the dogs learn correct behavior and capping skills at a lower drive level. In the training steps, Michael explains how to start the training for each skill. He also explains when to add drive and stressors for these various protection skills. When these things are done correctly the work with decoys goes much faster and with fewer mistakes.

We assume that the people who want to learn the work in this video know and understand marker training. We also must assume that the trainers who wish to do this work know and understand the concepts we teach in our DVD titled The Power of Playing Tug with Your Dog. The work in these 3 previous DVDs encompasses 13 1/2 hours of work. It would be impossible to include all that in this DVD.

This DVD covers training puppies that are 8 weeks through adolescence. Adolescence varies from dog to dog. As general rule adolescence ends between 12 months to 16 months of age. The video footage for this production has come from work with Michael Ellis that has been filmed over a 4 year period. We have dogs in this video that were filmed as 10 week old puppies that are 4 years old today. Michael divides the life of a working dog into five different categories: Pre-Teething, Teething, Adolescent, Young Adult, and Adult. In this 4 hour DVD, we will cover the foundation of bite work for the first three categories. We will cover, in step by step detail, the foundation of bite work with 8 week old puppies up through teaching adolescent dogs to bite arms and legs on leg sleeves.

In this video, Michael Ellis teaches dog handlers the fundamentals of training the object guard for the various ring sports. The goal of the video is to show dog handlers how to establish a good foundation for this exercise. The object guard is the most difficult exercise in all dog sports. In a competition the dog is left alone with an object while the handler moves out of sight. When the decoy approaches the dog guarding the object, the dog must bite on its own and release without an OUT command.

In this video, Michael will explain exactly what a dog should know before it starts object guard training. You will learn why Michael prefers to begin teaching this exercise at 7 to 9 months of age. We show the very first training sessions on a number of young dogs. We also show the 3rd and 4th training lesson on Cindy's dog, Rush, and then the dog in training a year later. The end of the video shows Michael Ellis and his dog, Pi, in an actual Mondioring III competition doing the object guard. This video will teach trainers how to establish a proper foundation for the object guard. It does not teach the advanced skills needed to finish a dog in this exercises. It can take years of hard work to perfect a dogs skill in the object guard.

Until now there has never been a well done training video that teaches pet owners the concepts of how to train with an electric collar. In my opinion the videos that come with various manufacturers collars are terrible. Our DVD solves this problem and is not brand specific.

When used properly low level stimulation from a remote collar is one of the most humane methods ever developed to train dogs. I call it training with an invisible leash. There is a myth that stimulation from an e-collar involves pain. This is simply not true. The majority of the time the levels we use in training cause a sensation that gets the dog's attention but they do not involve any pain.

There are a number of old school theories of how to train with a remote collar. I explain these methods in my DVD and then tell you why the methods I offer are the best I have seen in 27 years of remote collar training.

The goal of all dog training is to teach our dog to follow a voice command. My training methods teach a dog that the stimulation from an e-collar comes from the owner and only after the dog refuses a known command.

Old school trainers make a dog wear the collar for a couple of weeks to condition the dog to collar training. I explain a much better way.

Our DVD also explains what a dog should know before starting e-collar training. It explains how to determine what level of stimulation your dog should be trained with. Every dog is different and every situation is different. I explain the concepts of using the collar and the protocol for taking a dog through each step or stage of this training.

There is also a section on using a remote collar to solve some behavioral problems, like dog aggression. The Basic Dog Obedience DVD is a recommended pre-requisite to this DVD.

Garmin BarkLimiter

Garmin is excited to introduce the BarkLimiter series – an intuitive electronic bark correction device designed by Garmin using proven technology from Tri-Tronics®. It is able to distinguish between barking and other vocalizations. Advanced Bark Correction Technology delivers consistent and instantaneous correction, while virtually eliminating false corrections caused by external noises. Works right out of the box with a convenient Autorise setting that automatically programs the stimulation intensity level based on the barking behavior of each individual dog. Or, choose manual or vibration options for alternative modes of correction. Two versions available: the BarkLimiter, featuring a user-replaceable, long lasting (10-month) CR2 battery, and the BarkLimiter Deluxe, featuring a rechargeable lithium-ion battery, with each charge lasting up to 3 months. PLUS Ecollars

TWO Receivers - ONE Transmitter

This system is identical to the regular e-collar with the exception of an extra receiver on the collar strap. The purpose of this is not to deliver a stronger stimulation to the dog, but allow us to not have the collar so tight. The problem with single receiver systems is quite often the strap holding the collar has to be very tight on the dog's neck just to make sure the probes make contact. This system eliminates that problem. When dogs do bite work their neck muscles swell. It is temporary, but if you look at a dog's neck shortly after it has finished a training session, his neck muscles are pumped. Your dog may start a training session with a remote collar fitting perfectly, but as his neck swells during the training session the collar becomes tighter and tighter, restricting blood flow and breathing. When that happens you have shorter training sessions. This collar can be looser on the dog's neck while the probes maintain contact with the neck. Einstein Electric Training Collars

Einstein collars are lighter and more technologically current. Einstein's tapping sensation is twice as intense as their pager mode, their tones are more pronounced, their stimulation is cleaner and has a higher intensity when needed. The stimulation dial on the Einstein is easier to adjust and has the "lock and set" feature to prevent accidental over-stimulation, for 2 dogs each dog can be locked in to a different level. Einstein's stimulation is of a medical grade type that does not cause head jerking but will obtain compliance.

Another technological advantage of Einstein Collars is that they have the quickest stimulation in the industry. In other words from the time you push the button to the time stimulation starts is the shortest in the industry. This may be a subtle to many but competition trainers like it very much.

All of Einstein's products have night lights. They have programmable modes allowing the user to select different uses for the buttons. All of the Einstein transmitters float and are waterproof to 500' and can withstand 5000 Gs of shock. Comparable e-collars are good to 60' and 1000 Gs of shock, tough but not as tough. They have a quick-release belt/saddle/purse clip combined with the ergonomics of the transmitter make it easier to work. Einstein uses Biothane collar straps for unsurpassed durability. Comparing similar e-collars in other brands to the ET300 is like comparing a Yugo to a Ferrari but paying the same price.

Last but not least, the money is staying here in the US, all Einstein collars and products are made in the USA. leerburg.com/electric_einstein.htm

This DVD is the first of 2 DVDs with Michael Ellis on the proper use of the Remote collar. The first DVD in this series will cover how to select the correct remote collar for your dog, how to determine the levels to use during your training, and how to properly condition your dog to the electric collar. The DVD will also cover the prerequisites for what your dog should already know prior to layering the remote collar over behaviors. By the end of this DVD, you will have a thorough understanding of how to begin your remote collar work in a way that eliminates any superstitious associations that your dog may develop from the remote collar.

DVD Outline

- 1) Introduction: What this DVD covers and why we are doing it, as well as discussion of prerequisite DVDs - The Power of Training Dogs with Food & Training the Recall
- 2) Terminology
- 3) Classical and Operant Conditioning
- 4) The good and the bad of escape/avoidance training
- 5) Shaping behavior in a reward based system as a precursor to escape/avoidance work (the addition of correction or "pressure" to our work. Why is this important?)
- 6) Choosing and fitting an Electronic collar
- 7) Neutralizing and habituating the dog to the collar before use
- 8) Prerequisites to collar use revisited: what your dog needs to know.
- 9) Setting stimulation levels
- 10) Conditioning the dog to the collar. What we do and why it is different than what we will do when using collar... inherently unfair
- 11) Conclusion and reference to part two (using the collar on behavior)

This DVD covers the 3 major training categories we use the e-collar for; obedience, high arousal activities, and management. In this DVD you will learn how to take a dog that has been properly conditioned to the collar and in only a few short training sessions achieve the desired results through low level stimulation.

This DVD assumes that the viewer has watched Part 1. Please review the terminology in Part 1 before watching this DVD.

DVD Outline:

- 1) Introduction: What this DVD covers. What advantages does the e-collar give (distance, timing, control of intensity, and impersonal correction). Why an e-collar? NOT the bigger stick!
- 2) Obedience: A general note about the use of aversives in OB
- 3) Protection/High Arousal Activities: Special considerations, superstitious associations, higher arousal means higher levels, classically conditioned arousal response to punisher, damage to gripping behavior, aggression.
- 4) Management: We always try and address the underlying cause before, and during, using aversives on the symptoms. i.e. fear, lack of exercise, training, mental stimulation, and proper socialization.
- 5) Conclusion: Get help if you are unsure. Just because the collar is easy doesn't mean it is the right solution for every situation.

Seynaeve Bite Suits

Imported from Belgium

Belgian Ring Bite Suit

A Belgian ring suit is unique in its kind. It is made especially for Belgian ring and is mostly used in combination with jute covers. It is very much protected in the lower arm and lower leg. On the hips and jacket body there is not much protection. The cut of the suit is also very different from the other suits. leerburg.com/Belgian_BiteSuit.htm

Kimono Bite Suit

The Kimono Suit is the most protective suit for full bite training over the whole body. The suit is specially designed for training on the body area. The suit has a special cut to let dogs bite easier and safer on the front and back of the shoulder area. Due to its high protection level, this suit is not only very useful for sport training, it is also very popular with law enforcement and armed forces.

The Kimono jacket is different from all the other Mondio/French ring jackets and is made in a very different cut. There are no cutouts in the back and does not have separate arms. The cuts of the seams are above and below the arms. It is made to take the bite a lot in the shoulder, back, chest and upper arm area. In the beginning this jacket is a bit stiffer but it gets more flexible with using.

The Kimono Suit uses the same pants as the Mondio / French Ring Semi Training Pants or the Mondio / French Ring Training Pants. Please see those pages for the bite suit pants.

Mondio / French Ring Bite Suits

There are 3 types of Mondio/French Ring suits: Competition, Semi Training, Training. The TRAINING suit is the thickest and most protective, while the COMPETITION suit is the thinnest. Between those two is the SEMI TRAINING suit. Because the Competition suit is the thinnest, it is also much lighter in weight and more flexible than the Training suit, but it provides less protection.

Training

The training suit is the heaviest suit in the Mondioring/French Ring series. It gives maximum protection in this type of suit. The training suit has a bigger outer and inner size than the semi training because the filling of this suit is fuller and larger for training. leerburg.com/French_Mondio_Training_BiteSuit.htm

Semi Training

The semi training suit is sitting between the competition and the training suit. The suit gives more protection than the competition suit, but extra padding causes it to lose a little of its flexibility. The semi training suit is also made to take the bites over the whole body and is used the most for advanced training. leerburg.com/French_Mondio_SemiTraining_BiteSuit.htm

Competition

This competition suit is the lightest suit in the series of Mondioring and French Ring suits in weight and filling. Because of this, it becomes also the most flexible suit. From the inside to the outside, the suit is built to move quick and be flexible. Every type of bite suit is filled in a different way. The Mondioring and French Ring style suits are designed specially for better movement and to take bites all over the body. Competition suits are thin and light but still long lasting. This suit is made for the advanced decoys who will use the suit for competitions or train on a competition level. leerburg.com/French_Mondio_Competition_BiteSuit.htm

Special Order Item

Like all of the other types of suits we offer, this suit is made according to size and desire. It is therefore very important to measure very accurately by using the measuring form and give as much information as possible about your special wishes. All fabric used in these bite suits is developed through the many years of experience that Seynaeve has in making bite suits. From the wires of textiles to the fibers of the filling. Only the finest raw materials are used to design and manufacture these bite suits.

It can take over 12 to 18 weeks to construct and ship. Pre-payment required. THERE WILL BE NO RETURNS.

Measure YOURSELF for our Seynaeve Bite Suit:

When you check out, fill out the SELF MEASURING FORM available online on each bite suit page.

1. You can print the form, fill it out, and fax to 1-715-235-8868
 2. Or electronically fill in the fields and email to orders@leerburg.com.
 3. Or print the form, fill it out, scan it and email to orders@leerburg.com.
- If you have already placed your order, please put your order number in the email.

Payment Methods

Bite suits are a special order item, they are paid for when the order is placed. We will accept credit card payment on suits with a couple of rules in place.

- We only accept credit card payments for domestic/USA bite suit orders.
- We always contact the card issuing bank and verify the card holders name and the billing address associated with the credit card used for payment.
- We only ship the bite suit to the billing address for that credit card. We will not ship to an alternate address.
- Signature will be required upon delivery.
- International purchases of bite suits must be paid with Money Gram or a Wire Transfer of funds. All import duties and taxes are the recipients responsibility.

The Mechanics of Working a Dog in a Bite Suit with Mark Keating

2 Hours, 19 Minutes

This is the first of our DVD series with Mark Keating on decoy work. This series of training DVDs has two purposes: The first is to teach decoys correct and safe training concepts in a bite suit. The second, just as important purpose, is to teach dog handlers exactly what, why, and how a decoy should work a dog in a bite suit. We want to teach dog handlers exactly what decoys are doing with their dogs. We want dog handlers to recognize good training as well as inappropriate training. We want to give handlers the information they need to be able to discuss and communicate a training plan with their decoy.

Basic Bite Suit Presentations and Techniques with Mark Keating

1 Hour, 24 Minutes
leerburg.com/271.htm

DVD | #271-D $55.00
Video on Demand | #S271 $35.00

Streaming video preview available online.

This is the 2nd DVD in our series on decoy work. Now that you understand the mechanics of working the dog, you need to know how to present the dog with the right picture so they will bite where you want them to. In this DVD you will learn several different ways to present leg bites, both front and back, along with upper body presentations. In this DVD, you will learn all of the main biting surfaces of the suit and how to show the dog where you want them to bite.

Whether you're a dog handler competing in biting sports or working a police K-9 or military dog, it is crucial that you understand what your decoy is doing and why. The handler and the decoy need to be on the same page with their training. The ability for you to communicate and work together as a team is what creates great dogs that can compete and perform at the highest level. Just to reiterate, handler-decoy communication is the most important aspect to this training.

In the 3rd DVD in our series with Mark Keating, you will learn how to take the targeting skills from the 2nd DVD and apply them to catching dogs. Catching dogs on a suit is the ultimate goal of anyone learning to do decoy work. The skills taught in this DVD will give you insight into how to properly absorb the impact of a dog being sent off leash from a distance. In the DVD, we will cover upper and lower body, as well as front and back catches. This DVD picks up right where the 2nd DVD left off. You should have a general understanding of how to present the bite and what picture to show the dog. Now you will learn how to bring it full circle and put all the skills you've learned into practical applications.

This is the second training DVD that Leerburg has done on nosework with Andrew Ramsey.

The goal of this training video is to cover Andrew Ramsey's methods for teaching a detector dog obedience to odor and a focused response. These are very important skills that every detector dog should know.

This DVD is laid out to show the training steps for Obedience to Odor (OTO), a Focused Response (FR) in addition to a chapter on the finer points of handling a nose work dog while in training.

In the handler training chapter of our DVD, we are going to review the following subjects:

1. How to teach a dog to resist leash pressure and stay with the odor source.
2. How correct timing in rewards builds to a Focused Response.
3. Introducing the SIT as a final response.
4. Footwork and correct leash handling during a search.
5. The difference in handling a lower drive dog vs. a high drive, fast dog during a search. The search pattern to use for a high drive dog
6. Drive building techniques and why choosing the right reward for each dog is fundamental to a good detector dog.
7. We will discuss how to evaluate a "false indication" along with what a handler needs to do to eliminate an aggressive indication (scratching).

For 10 years I was a K9 handler on our local sheriff's department and drug task force (1990 to 2000). I literally have done thousands of narcotics searches. I cannot tell you how many times during the production of these nosework DVDs with Andrew Ramsey that I wished I had had this information available back then. The work in these training DVDs makes me feel like my years as a K9 handler were spent in the dark ages of detector dog work.

While these DVDs have their foundation in the sport of Nosework, the fact is these exact training methods can be used to train a dog to detect any odor. There is no difference between teaching a dog to detect narcotics, bed bugs, termites, nosework scents or explosives. It all comes down to what odors the handler chooses to use in their training program.

Nosework Scent Kit

The Leerburg Nosework Scent Kit is a small portable training aid that allows you to train nosework anywhere anytime. Our kit contains all three target odors that people train nosework dogs to search for as well as everything else you will need to get started in nosework.

Each Leerburg Nosework Training Aid Kit contains a jar with 36 pre-scented cotton swabs for each of the three common target odors, Birch, Anise and Clove. The kit also comes with 3 eye droppers filled with the liquid extract of the target odors so you can make additional cotton swab training aids in the future. Included as well, is a small aerated metal tin that holds a scented cotton swab and a magnet that allows you to hide training aids on or under metal objects. This kit will last you many, many Nosework training sessions. The entire Leerburg Nosework Training Aid Kit is contained inside of a small waterproof, impact-resistant, hard plastic case. Available in blue or yellow. leerburg.com/6004.htm

Certification & Deployment Standards for the Police Service Dog with Kevin Sheldahl

Kevin Sheldahl has been involved in police service dog training for nearly 30 years. He has served as a police K9 handler, as well as an instructor. Over the course of his career he has trained over 200 police K9 handlers and dogs, from the beginning all the way to deployment ready. In addition to handling an operational dog, Kevin also certifies police service dogs for several major police departments throughout the country.

This DVD will take a look at police K9 certification standards and show how to convert them into a deployment standard. We will show how the certification standards that a police service dog must attain are used in a practical application. It is important that all police service dogs are trained for street deployment not simply for certification.

During the filming of this DVD we worked with approximately 30 operational police dogs and handlers from all over the country. We used a variety of dogs from a variety of departments. This allowed us to show the broad picture of what different police service dogs are required to do.

This DVD is meant to be used as a guideline for what your police service dog and handler should be able to do. This DVD is not only meant for the K9 handlers but should be used as a tool for supervisors to better understand the capability of the police service dogs at their disposal.

Muzzle Fighting for Police Service Dogs

1 Hour, 20 Minutes
leerburg.com/121.htm

DVD | #121-D $40.00
 Video on Demand | #S121 $25.00

This training video deals with "Muzzle Fighting" for police service dogs. Working in muzzle is one of the least understood exercises in protection work. The video takes the viewer step by step through muzzle fighting. There is a real difference between what we show in this video, and what happens when someone just throws a muzzle on a dog and sends him after a helper without a sleeve. The goal of this video is to train a dog in muzzle to alert on a passive suspect located some distance from his handler.

This video deals with the process of developing a police dog's skill in locating criminal suspects hiding in a building. New officers often over estimate their dog's ability to perform this skill. Over estimating a dog's scenting ability is bad dog training and it could get you killed. The video includes; temperament, where a dog should be in training, most common problems and a step by step breakdown, pursuits into a building, learning indications, off lead control and more.

When done properly, protection training is extremely complex. If the foundation for protection work is not 100% correct, it is only a matter of time before the dog and handler run into problems. The goal in producing this video was to show that a person with little or no dog training experience can understand how to lay this foundation. This video is a must for training new helpers. It identifies the drives a dog works in, critical distance, and avoidance. More information available online.

DVD | #101D-D $65.00
 Video on Demand | #S101D $45.00

For a dog to do police service, serious personal protection, or good Schutzhund work, it must have a solid foundation in defensive drive training. Before this can take place, the dog must have already gone through prey bite development and it must have reached mental maturity. Starting defense work too young can ruin a dog's working ability for life. More information available online.

This video assumes a dog has already gone through bite development. This means "you and your dog" know and understand the material in our bite development videos. This video shows how to target the dog's bite to different parts of the body. This is taught in segments using body bite suits. More information available online.

Scent Work Scratch Box

This scratch box can be used for narcotics dog training, explosive dog training or accelerant dog training. Designed after scratch boxes that are used in the Federal police dog schools in Holland. The Dutch are masters of scent work. An excellent training tool that can be used to proof dogs off of odors in addition to locking dogs onto odors. The best application for these boxes is to have 5 to 7 boxes hung on walls or on 2x4 racks that you mount in a room. These boxes can also be used to train accelerant dogs. Whelping Puppies and Their First 8 Weeks DVD

1 Hour, 50 Minutes
leerburg.com/118.htm

DVD | #118-D $40.00
 Video on Demand | #S118 $25.00

New version released March 1, 2013. This video explains how to prepare and assist a bitch in whelping a litter of puppies. There is extensive video of females whelping pups. It tells the breeder exactly what needs to be done during the birth and throughout the first 8 weeks of a pup's life. Ed Frawley bred over 350 litters of German Shepherds over many years. You will benefit from the practical experience he has gained in whelping this many litters.

It takes you through the trials of dealing with sick puppies. It shows exactly how to tube feed a weak puppy and provides a medical program to follow for the entire litter. As puppies go from day one to 8 weeks of age, they go through a series of changes or stages of development. The video is divided into weekly segments. We explain the added responsibilities of the breeder as the pups approach and go through the weaning process. The concepts that are explained in this video can be applied to every breed of dog.

I personally prefer to tattoo my pups versus putting a computer chip in them. There are too many kinds of computer chips, and each needs its own chip reader. Anyone can look in the ear of a dog and see that it is tattooed. If anything, I would recommend both a chip and tattoo. This DVD can be yours for free when you purchase the complete set of Hauptner's Tattoo Equipment (See Below).

This video is directed towards the dedicated dog breeder. It is an instructional video teaching people how to tattoo their own puppies. The video deals with Hauptner tattoo equipment from Germany. Hauptner makes the best tattooing equipment in the world for dogs. The video was filmed at a tattooing seminar in California. Debby Gundherr is the instructor. She has tattooed over 1,300 dogs in the past 10 years. She is also on the Schutzhund USA breed committee. During the seminar, Debby tattoos a litter of puppies. There is excellent video showing the exact procedure to follow. Includes a step by step review at the end of the video.

Hauptner Tattoo Equipment

Hauptner is without a doubt the finest tattoo equipment in the world. Meant to last a lifetime. Used to tattoo puppies ears. Manufactured in Germany and is the only tattoo equipment used by all of the breed clubs in Europe. Training Dogs to Get Along with Horses DVD with Ed Frawley

DVD | #211-D $20.00
 Video on Demand | #S211 $20.00

Here at Leerburg we own horses and a number of dogs. We used to breed German Shepherds and Belgian Malinois. We also own Rocky Mountain gaited horses and quarter horses. A number of years ago when we decided to add horses it quickly became evident that we needed to train our dogs to get along with our horses. We did not expect our dogs to become good buddies with our horses but we did expect them to learn to live peacefully with the horses. Cindy and I have years of experience with both horses and dogs. This DVD teaches people how to desensitize their dogs to their horses. In our step-by-step program we teach our dogs to accept our horses as part of their family pack. This DVD was filmed over a 2 1/2 year period. We followed the training steps for one of our personal dogs, CJ. The viewer will have the opportunity to see CJ's first exposure to a number of the training steps we recommend in this DVD. People can see the issues that came up with him and then relate to problems they may have with their own dogs and horses.

Clicker Train Your Own Assistance Dog

3 Hours, 10 Minutes
leerburg.com/417.htm

4-DVD Set | #417-D $100.00

Learn how to Clicker Train Your Own Assistance Dog with this four part DVD series produced by Barbara Handelman, M.Ed, CDDBC. Includes CD "How to Use this DVD Series" with manual, scripts, and complete table of contents. For best use of this series of DVDs, the trainer should have worked with clicker training basics and the essential tenets of canine learning theory. It's important for the dog to be fluent with essential "obedience" skills, as well as being both comfortable and safe working off lead. All of these behaviors should be on cue, before attempting to train the complex skills.

Our pets have moved from living outdoors and eating anything to living indoors and eating commercial pet food. Feeding the same food every day may cause many of your pets' health problems. We want our pets to live long, healthy lives. But many of our dogs and cats are dealing with seasonal allergies that eventually become year-round, itching and licking, dull coats, lots of shedding, ear infections, weight gain, cancers, and more.

Pets are what they eat! A healthy digestive system means a healthy dog or cat. With so many health concerns and so many choices of foods, treats, and supplements, what should you give your pets?

- Do you have a new pet and want to do things right to avoid problems?
- Does your pet seem to always be on antibiotics or other medications?
- Are you visiting you vet more than once a year, often for repeat problems?
- Do you find all the choices -- dry, dehydrated, canned, or freeze-dried foods, raw diets, or home cooking -- overwhelming?

Let us help! Sit down with "Katie K9" and Dr. Jessica for a "straight from the guy" talk to dispel myths and learn about nutrition for pets, pros and cons of feeding options, and how to choose the best food and supplements for your cat or dog.

Puppy Jumping DVD

1 Hour, 23 Minutes
leerburg.com/420.htm
 DVD | #420-D $29.95

Every course your dog will perform is mostly jumps, so he should approach jumps with great confidence and an understanding of how to perform them. Susan Salo believes the development of these skills begins at the puppy stage—teaching young dogs to read and drive a path to their target (and person), to understand how to react to distances that are constantly changing, and to do so without producing extra strides where they are not needed.

Foundation Jumping 4-DVD Set

4 Hours, 23 Minutes
leerburg.com/419.htm
 4-DVD Set | #419-D $68.95

Every course your dog will ever run is primarily made up of jumps; yet, it is the least taught and least understood skill set in agility. Because a dog can jump doesn't mean that he knows how. As handlers we tend to focus on practicing drills that are designed to perfect the dog's understanding of our positional cues and handling maneuvers, and we neglect to offer the dog an opportunity to hone the skills needed to master each component involved in jumping.

Foundation Fundamentals 6-DVD Set

Important Skills to Train Before Introducing Agility Equipment

6 Hours, 34 Minutes
leerburg.com/408.htm
 6-DVD Set | #408-D $74.95

This program is designed for all dogs at any skill level. Build specific skills that your dog needs before you begin his obstacle training. It's very difficult to teach agility equipment to a dog if he's running around with a toy, leaving you to go sniff, mugging you to get his treat, etc. You can't train your dog to go over a jump or into a tunnel, much less chain together obstacles at speed, if he doesn't know how to focus on the task at hand.

Walking the Course

What to Look For and How to Plan Your Run

36 Minutes
leerburg.com/459.htm
 DVD | #459-D $24.95

Do you know what you should be looking for when you walk a course? Walking the course effectively is one of the most important skills you can develop. Successful competitors are ones who can consistently read the course correctly and then execute their plan. Memorizing the order of the obstacles is much different from analyzing the course and planning a handling strategy.

The Puppy Program

By Leslie McDevitt, MLA, CDBC, CPDT
 296 Pages | Paperback Book

This book is meant as "preventive medicine" for puppy raisers. Many common behavior problems can be prevented or minimized by starting a puppy with good foundation training from the beginning. This book provides a program that will help you create a puppy that is ready for sport-specific training at the appropriate age—a puppy with the ability to focus on whatever you want, for as long as you want, whenever you want. leerburg.com/9007.htm

Foundation Training for Agility 3-DVD Set

The Road to a Perfect Partnership

3 Hours, 8 Minutes
leerburg.com/412.htm
 3-DVD Set | #412-D $39.95

To achieve your goals in agility, you need a solid working relationship with your dog and a clear and consistent communication system. Conflicting cues or missing links in your communication system will limit what your team can achieve. With clarity and consistency in your communication system, your dog will be more confident, focused, and sure of his job, which will allow you and the dog not only to achieve more, but also to enjoy the game more.

Success with One Jump 2-DVD Set

2 Hours, 6 Minutes
leerburg.com/458.htm
 2-DVD Set | #458-D $49.95

It's finally here—a video that gives you all the tools to improve your skills as a handler, regardless of the size of your backyard! Success with One Jump is a 2-DVD set that gives clear instruction on more than 20 exercises that will help improve your dog's understanding of the key handling maneuvers in agility, from a simple front cross to a more complex pull-through to distance skills. A must-have for the seasoned competitor and novice handler alike.

Leerburg Online University

LeerburgOnlineUniversity.com

I bought my first video camera in 1978 and produced my first dog training video in 1982. It seems like yesterday, but time passes quickly when you are having fun. I have been very lucky to have had a career doing something I love.

Never in a million years did I ever think that one day it would be possible to teach people how to train dogs using a computer.

Heck, ten years ago I didn't think it would be possible.

The first VHS video I produced back in 1982 was titled Training a Competition Obedience Dog. That video was 2 hours long.

Today I chuckle because it quickly became evident that it's impossible to teach everything there is to know on competition obedience in 2 hours. If it were possible there would be 100,000 dog training centers out there holding 2 hour classes every night pumping out competition obedience dogs.

The core issue of producing training videos has always been limited in how much information we can put into a video. While a VHS tape only held 2 hours, a DVD can fit 3 ½ hours. The problem is, that's often not enough time to teach complicated skills. That has always bothered me.

Then a few years ago, along came streaming video. YAHOOO!!!

Streaming video has opened another door to the world of dog training. It gives us the tools to instantly provide the amount of information that is sometimes necessary to teach.

For the past year Leerburg's IT staff of five talented computer programmers have focused their energy on writing our own dedicated online computer program. It is tailored specifically to teaching people how to train dogs.

We have some very good friends who are gifted instructors/trainers. They know how to teach dog training. Our program gives them the flexibility to design and lay out a course according to the needs of the topic being taught.

Some of the features of the Leerburg Online program are:

1. Course material that will be professionally filmed
2. Every week, each class will have its own discussion forum
3. If the instructor chooses, they can have live online chats
4. Students will be able to seamlessly upload short smartphone video to the discussion forum for that week.
5. The ability to offer graded tests on the course material

Leerburg's online program offers a new level of interaction with students.

With the advent of the internet, dog training has come further in the past 15 years that it did in the previous 150 years.

Online training will never replace hands-on instruction, but it can bridge the gap between a DVD and attending a dog training school or seminar.

If you go to our web site you will be able to take our introductory sample course. The short little course is used to teach students how the courses are set up and navigated.

Beginning in 2014, we will add training courses from a number of different instructors.

Weighted Vest and Collar

This weighted vest and collar were originally designed to develop and build a dog's muscles. However, a tired dog is not an aggressive or dominant dog. Each comes with weights that you can add or remove as needed. Each weight has a separate pocket with its own heavy-duty zipper. Extension straps available. Herm Sprenger Prong Collars

Black Stainless Steel Prong

Stainless Steel Prong

Curogan Prong

Chrome Plated Prong

I call prong collars "Power Steering for Dogs." It is probably the most misunderstood training tool there is. So many people take one look at it and say "Oh! I could NEVER use that on MY dog!" Then when I explain how it's used and why it's used they call back and say "ED, THIS IS THE GREATEST THING!" When a prong collar is used in training, the handler must realize that a dog who required a level 8 correction before will probably require a level 2 or 3 correction with a prong. So a strong dog with too much drive for a small person to handle is now easily controllable without a lot of effort. If you are a new Schutzhund trainer or a police service dog handler, you will need a prong collar. Curogan is a copper-tin-alloy with a high copper portion and some additives which make the material strong, but without any nickel. Nickel is often responsible for allergic reactions of sensitive dogs and causes of some skin rashes. These chains avoid a discoloration of fair haired dogs. leerburg.com/prongcollars.htm

PRONG COLLARS A SAFETY SYSTEM for ALL Prong Collar Use

We have always recommended a backup collar be used along with a prong collar. We recently heard about a littermate to one of our dogs being killed when the prong came apart at the end of a training session. When the prong came apart the dog ran in front of a car and was killed. The owner did not have a backup collar on the dog. Unfortunately these kinds of SAD situations happen all too often.

So if you use a prong collar YOU ALSO NEED TO HAVE A BACKUP COLLAR on your dog - every time!!

The perfect safety procedure is to use a dominant dog collar along with your prong collar. I offer this advice to ALL those trainers who use prong collars.

It is not unheard of for a prong collar to come apart when you need it the most. By having a dominant dog collar on the dog at the same time as the prong this will never be a problem. Simply attach the clip on the leash to both the prong and the ring on the dominant dog collar.

Ed Frawley's Prong Collar Leash™ & Dominant Dog Collar™

Leerburg STRONGLY recommends a Dominant Dog Collar™ with all Prong Collars.

Leather Prong Collar Leash™

This Patent Pending leash is 6 feet long with solid brass clips. Made so that a prong collar is attached to one clip & a dominant dog collar™ is attached to second clip. A 6" tab is attached to clip the end of the leash for that 2nd collar. When/ if the prong fails & comes off, the second collar is already attached without interfering with the prong collar corrections. Collars sold separately. Also available in Soft Grip, see page 37. leerburg.com/5131.htm

MUZZLE SIZING:

It's important that customers measure their dogs to determine what size muzzle a dog needs. Some muzzles are identified as breed specific, this is not an accurate way to determine what muzzle your dog needs.

Dogs within a specific breed can have a wide variety of head measurements. It is impossible to say that one muzzle size fits all Rottweilers or one muzzle size fits all Dobermans or one muzzle size fits all Cocker Spaniels.

The only true way to determine what muzzle fits your dog is by measuring your dog's head in the manner in which we detail below.

Check out all the muzzle measuring instructions, muzzle sizes and FREE videos at leerburg.com/muzzleftit.htm

Ventlock Tailgate Lock

🔒 The Ventlock Tailgate Lock allows more ventilation into your car than just leaving windows open. It works by fixing the rear door or tailgate in a semi-open position and combined with a front window open just an inch or two, it allows free flowing air just where the dogs need it most - on their nose at the back of the vehicle. Another major advantage is that with the Ventlock secured between car and tailgate all but the most determined thief will be kept out. It takes only a few seconds to fit or remove and the car can be locked in the normal way using either the key or central locking. Best of all it fits 99% of Estate Cars / Hatchbacks / Vans or 4 Wheel Drive vehicles fitted with a rear door. 4 inch shown below. More photos & info available online. leerburg.com/1332.htm

American Chicken

All-American Chicken Jerky treat for dogs! In life, sometimes you gotta take chances. But feeding jerky to your dog shouldn't be one of those times. American Chicken is safe, natural and All-American from start to finish. I've produced more chicken jerky than any man alive: literally thousands of strips since 2003, all human-grade and natural. My endless homework paid off with American Chicken. In my view, 30 years of inventing the best human and natural products, American Chicken is the best natural treat ever made. Take chances when you drive, not when you feed jerky. Buy American-it's better. leerburg.com/93.htm

 The Honest Kitchen provides natural & organic pet food products that promote nutritional awareness, environmental responsibility, and a sustainable community. Operated with foresight, thoughtfulness, insight and integrity, and will be accountable for all that we do. Their selection of fresh wholesome, human grade foods are much better than the cooked mixture of by-products, fillers and other processed ingredients being served to many unfortunate pets, day after day.

Seven completely gluten-free, grain-free diets for dogs are available. All products are 100% wheat free. All grains are certified organic. Meats are hormone, antibiotic free and our fruits and vegetables are guaranteed non GMO. Quinoa is certified fair-trade. One cup of dehydrated food will hydrate to make about 1 lb. of fresh food. A 10 lb. size holds about 43 dry-cups and makes about 43 lbs. of fresh food. leerburg.com/honestkitchen.htm

Solid Gold Dog & Cat Food

Sun Dancer Dog Food

Sun Dancer is a chicken based gluten free dry dog food with a moderate protein and fat content. Sun Dancer includes three exciting new ingredients; tapioca, chia seed, and fructooligosaccharide (FOS). Tapioca is derived from a gluten free root vegetable and is an excellent source of starch which is vital to the production of dry pet foods. Chia seed is an excellent source of omega 3 fatty acids and has a naturally balanced ratio between omega 3 and 6. Chia is also full of protein, vitamins, and minerals. Fructooligosaccharide (FOS) is a prebiotic, which can help improve overall digestive health. Palatability and digestibility studies have shown Sun Dancer to be one of the most palatable and digestible foods in the Solid Gold line and against key competitors. Our own dogs go crazy for it and we are sure it will be as big of a hit with Solid Gold dogs around the world. Ingredients available online. leerburg.com/dancer.htm

Barking at the Moon Dog Food

Grain Free, High Protein, Low Carbohydrate dry dog food for performance dogs. We are raw feeders and promote raw feeding for dogs and cats, but the reality is that not everyone can feed their pets a raw diet. With help from some of our nutritional consultants, we sorted through the vast variety of commercial products available and narrowed it down to products we felt comfortable feeding our own dogs and cats. Our criterion was as follows, human grade quality ingredients and no grains. Barking at the Moon Dog Food met all of our criteria and was one of the top grain free kibbles on Whole Dog Journals "best" list. Many of our fellow dog breeders feed Barking at the Moon to their breeding and working dogs in conjunction with a raw diet with excellent results. leerburg.com/barkingmoon.htm

Training The Behavior

By Gary Patterson

This book is about developing and training a working dog by starting and working outward from the dog's mind. Where traditional training for sport and service dogs has centered on making the dog enter the trainer's world of thinking, this book reverses the process by examining how the trainer can take the dog's view of its world and mold it into a positive and confident relationship with the handler. Paperback, 410 pages. leerburg.com/973.htm

The Focused Puppy

By Deborah Jones, Ph.D. & Judy Keller

This book integrates the authors' training system techniques with the developmental stages and specific needs of pups and young dogs. The goal is to help you prepare your puppy to become an excellent companion as well as a potential performance dog. Presents a variety of foundation exercises for your pup. Explains exactly what skills you should be working on and when. Once your pup's foundation skills are set, you can easily take your training in any direction you choose. Paperback, 208 pages. leerburg.com/9002.htm

Tracking From The Beginning

By Gary Patterson

Tracking, of all dog sports, is the most mysterious to trainers while, seemingly the most natural to working dogs. Each year increasing numbers of people are finding that tracking is a multi-dimensional form of training, every bit as challenging or more so than other dog training. The AKC describes tracking as non-competitive, yet we know more good dog trainers are drawn to it each year. Read more online. Paperback, 182 pages. leerburg.com/924.htm

The Malinois

By Jan Kaldenbach

This book is an in-depth look at the Malinois, its background, breed characteristics, training and usefulness as a police service dog. And of course, to discuss the Malinois without explaining the involvement of the KNPV (the Royal Dutch Police Dog Society) would not do justice to the development of the breed. The Michael Ellis School for Dog Trainers

The Michael Ellis School for Dog Trainers is located in Fairfield, California.

On September 15th, 2009, Michael Ellis started his school for dog trainers. I went to my first dog training seminar in October of 1973 and since then have attended hundreds and hundred of seminars and traveled all over America and Europe filming various people training dogs. I have never met a more gifted dog trainer than Michael Ellis and I feel lucky to call him my friend.

If you own a local dog training business then you should consider attending Michael's school because you are the person Michael is directing his courses towards. Training dog trainers is what he has done almost every weekend for the past 10 years. At times I find myself wondering where dog training would be in this country today had we had Michael Ellis around 25 years ago when I started attending training seminars.

If you want to take your training to the next level and beyond you should consider attending some of Michael's short courses. He understands that its difficult for people to take large blocks of time away from work and family, which is why he has kept his courses short.

Living with Your Puppy Establishing Pack Structure

2 Hours, 31 Minutes

Every new puppy owner has the same image of what they want their new dog to be like as an adult. First and foremost, everyone wants a great relationship with their dog but beyond that, those who plan on keeping their dog in their home want a calm, well-mannered, obedient house dog that minds and respects their family and friends. See page 4.

Your Puppy 8 Weeks to 8 Months

1 Hour, 59 Minutes

This 1 hour and 59 minute DVD has been one of our most popular training videos for new puppy owners. Over the years Ed has been asked just about every question a new puppy owner can think to ask, from potty training to crate training and more. See page 3.

Training the Recall with Michael Ellis

59 Minutes

This DVD covers: restrained recalls; recalls in an environment free of distractions; recalls while focused on something else; increasing intensity of competing motivator; leash pressure; basic collar conditioning; finishing recall in real life situations; teaching & adding terminal behaviors; everyday do's & don'ts; and more! See page 8.

The Power of Training Dogs with Food

2 Hours, 7 Minutes

This is the first DVD in the Building Drive and Focus Series with Michael Ellis. This system establishes a method of communication with our dogs that is built on positive reinforcement. It is a communication system that is "black and white" to our dogs. This work builds a non-confrontational relationship with a dog. See page 6

Basic Dog Obedience

4 Hours

This 4 hour DVD will teach you everything you need to know to teach your dog basic dog obedience. Your dog will learn to sit, down, come and more! This is our best selling DVD! This DVD applies to all breeds. See page 3.

The Power of Playing Tug with Your Dog

5 Hours, 25 Minutes

This is the second DVD in the Building Drive and Focus Series with Michael Ellis. This DVD opens with Michael's lecture on why and how to play tug with your dog. Michael will demonstrate technique with his dog Pi and then the rest of the DVD uses untrained dogs and untrained handlers. See page 6.
