Leerburg® Kennel and Video is owned by Ed Frawley. Ed has owned German Shepherds (GSD) for 45 years. Since 1978 he has bred over 350 litters of German working bloodline GSDs. His dogs work in law enforcement, as S&R dogs, as competition Schutzhund dogs, and as family companions and protectors.

Since 1980 Ed has produced over 120 dog training videos, more than anyone else in the world. If you go to the Leerburg® web site you will see that it is over 10,000 pages. leerburg.com

Ed has also spent hours corresponding with customers that were seeking training advice. # Ed Frawley's Philosophy on Dog Training

Copyright 2005

I look at people who train dogs and lump them into three main categories. These categories can be placed on a sliding scale.

The first category, on the left, is the group of people who beg or bribe their dogs to do something by offering food or a toy reward. Do not get me wrong, I use food and toys in training, but I also use distractions and corrections. These people use neither.

The problem with this group is that the dogs often choose not to do what is asked because they do not think the reward is worth the task. These dogs end up being pushy, dominant and often antisocial dogs. They are the dogs that are turned in to animal shelters as being unmanageable when in fact they act the way they do as a result of ineffective training.

At the other end of the scale, on the right side, is the second category of people. These are trainers who intimidate or force their dogs to do what they want. I call them the old school "yank and crank" trainers.

They put a choke collar on a dog and force it to do everything. Many professional dog trainers use these methods because to them time is money and with enough force a dog can be trained to do about anything.

The problem with yank and crank trainers is the dogs seldom like their handlers and in fact are often afraid of them. These are the dogs that tuck their tails or lay on the ground when asked to do something. When these dogs are near their owners they do not look happy because they never know when the hammer is going to fall.

The problem with both of these categories of trainers is the training produces inconsistent results and dogs that don't respect their owners. If you don't have a good bond with your dog, or if your dog does not respect you as a pack leader you will never reach consistency in training.

The third category of trainers is where I like people to be. These are the trainers that are in the middle of the two groups. They balance in the middle but are always prepared to move one way or the other depending on what's going on at that point in time.

The third group also uses food, toys, or praise to take a dog through a learning phase (where the dog actually learns the meaning of a command – for example "lay down") but then they add distractions to the program (i.e. having the dog lay down when someone tosses a ball in front of the dog's feet). If the dog is disobedient under distraction or does not follow directions, this group teaches a dog that they will be corrected for being disobedient.

How to Build Leadership and Respect

When asked how to build a bond, gain respect, and still maintain a leadership role with our dogs, the answer is that we must make sure the dog understands that we will always be fair with him. Dogs think in terms of black and white. They do not understand English and for the most part they do not reason, they just react.

We teach the dog that we are only going to ask him to do things he knows how to do. When he does something correctly we always let him know he is doing the right thing. This is called training with markers.

We never correct our dog for things that he has not been trained to do. This supports the black and white rule. We do not correct because "WE THINK HE KNOWS BETTER." We only correct because we know, through training, that he understands a command and then refuses to do it.

The dog must learn that we are 100% consistent in how and when we administer corrections. Being consistent at all times is one of the most important parts of being a pack leader. For example, we cannot ignore aggressive behavior towards guests in our house and then correct the dog for aggression while on walks.

Corrections must also be administered within 1 ½ seconds of an infraction, not an hour after he peed on the floor. When I hear people say "He knows he did something wrong when I was gone," I shake my head and feel sorry for the dog.

One of the most important parts of training is for the handler to learn to administer corrections at a level that produces harmony in the family pack. This means that the handler must learn when simply saying "NO" is enough of a correction to let the dog know that he is doing something wrong vs. learning when a level 10 leash correction with a prong collar is needed (i.e. showing aggression to a child).

Dogs Can Love You and Not Respect You

I tell people that your dog can love you and not respect you. You cannot love your dog into respecting you. Love and respect are two unrelated emotions when referring to a relationship with a dog.

When my dog shows disrespect I increase the pressure I put on the dog. This means I work the dog harder and control his free time until he shows me the respect that I demand. A pack leader controls the lives of pack members.

New dog trainers need to remember that a dog learns through repetition. It takes 30 repetitions for a dog to learn a new command. Trainers are often guilty of thinking their dog understands them when in fact they have not repeated an exercise often enough for a dog to completely understand that exercise. This results in problems because the owners start to unjustly correct for something the dog does not fully understand. This breaks the black and white rule.

Most Trainers are too Passive

With this said, most new trainers are too passive. This is either a result of their temperament or a result of being exposed to ineffective and poor dog training techniques. We see this frequently in training classes which only focus on positive training methods while ignoring distractions and corrections. (i.e. classes that only use clickers and head halters).

Do not get me wrong, there is nothing wrong with clickers. I train with markers (rather than a clicker I use my voice and say "OK"). You can read the article I wrote on my web site about training with markers. The difference in what I do and what these ineffective obedience classes do is that once the dog has learned an exercise with markers I add distractions. I then correct the dog when the distraction becomes high enough to promote disobedience. This is the only way to get consistency in training.

On the other end of the scale we find professional dog trainers who take customer's dogs in for training. The vast majority of these trainers use way too much force in training. I have already said "time is money" to these people and they can force a dog into submission a lot quicker than they can take it through a learning phase that uses markers.

Thirty five to forty years ago people trained dogs almost exclusively with force. Read the old William Kohler books. He was the master of yank and crank. In recent years the pendulum has swung to the other end of the spectrum – now it is clickers and head halters with no corrections. This is wrong and is playing itself out in the dog world where we see an explosion of dominance and aggressive problems in family pets. Once again the correct place is in the middle. The difference between a good trainer and a great trainer is the great trainer learns the balance between motivation and correction.

If you study pack behavior or even herd behavior you will see that rank issues in the pack are often dealt with very passively but disrespect is dealt with very quickly and aggressively. The same thing needs to happen in a relationship with a dog.

Respect-Cooperate-Try

I tell people a dog should respect me, cooperate, and try to do what I ask. If it does that then I can train it. This is not good behavior - it is expected behavior. That is a very important concept in dog training.

Many people own dogs that are disrespectful and behave badly. When these owners start to train their dogs and the dogs start to mind, the owners mistakenly think the dog is respecting them. These owners are often wrong. Respect comes over time and is a result of good leadership techniques.

People too often act like they are begging their dog to mind them. Go to any beginner obedience training class and you will see it. The sad thing is that this attitude in dog training not only produces inconsistent behavior, it produces behavioral problems, which often leads to a dangerous dog.

When owners learn the concepts of a learning phase, a distraction phase, a correction phase, and a maintenance phase, they are on the road to being a pack leader and they have the tools needed to train their dog.

Getting out and actually working with the dog will give a trainer the experience needed to learn the levels of praise and correction that are required to get a dog to do what you want it to do.

Always remember, "most dogs prefer being followers." Most dogs don't want to be a pack leader. When dog owners learn to control the lives of their dogs they will become the pack leader their dogs want them to be.

One of the most common reasons that people give up their pets are house training problems. There are so many 'old wives tails' out there that are nothing but the wrong ways to house train a dog. I have owned and bred over 350 litters of German Shepherds, and have trained many dogs. This translates into a lot of experience in house training. If you need a game plan for how to approach and solve your house training problems you need this information. eBook, 165 pages.

New!

*Dog owners should establish pack structure
before OBEDIENCE TRAINING their dogs.*

New pet owners are often told the road to a calm, submissive dog is to attend obedience classes and socialize their dog. We don't agree with this, in fact we think it's bad information.

All dogs are pack animals. Every breed of dog is hard wired with genetic pack instincts. The smallest Chihuahua to the largest Great Dane wants to live in a dog pack. They also genetically want to establish leadership and rank within their pack.

The road to a calm submissive dog is to first establish pack structure and leadership. Once leadership has been determined a dog can then be obedience trained.

I get hundreds of emails every week from people who have behavioral problems with their dogs. 99% of these problems are a direct result of owners who have failed to establish pack structure with their dogs.

Establishing pack structure means teaching the dog that he now lives in your family pack and that you are his pack leader. This process also teaches the dog that YOU have rules that he must live by. Once a dog accepts your leadership and your rules he becomes a calm, happy dog.

When a dog accepts a pack leader he is also more willing to listen and follow directions during obedience training.

This DVD will teach the way I establish pack structure with a new dog when I bring it into my home. The goal of my training is to establish leadership and still allow the dog to maintain his dignity. When I introduce my rules I do so in ways that create a level of communication and respect.

The information I show is based on my 45 years of experience in training dogs, breeding over 350 litters of German Shepherds, competing in various dog sports, and working as a police K9 handler for 10 years. I have established leadership with more tough, dangerous dogs than I can remember. During this work I have never been badly bitten or even hurt by a dog.

I like to remind people that hundreds of thousands of dogs with behavioral problems go through obedience classes every year in this country. The vast majority of these dogs come out of class with the exact same problem they had when they started training. The reason for this is that most obedience classes teach exercises (i.e. come, sit, stay, and down) and they ignore pack structure training.

Teaching obedience first puts the cart before the horse. Once a respectful relationship has been established you have an atmosphere of trust and respect that provides a platform to start obedience training.

The reason we have so many humane societies full of dogs, so many dog bites, so many behavioral problems, and so many dog fights is because owners do not establish pack structure and leadership.

The bottom line in all of this work is that in essence you are going to learn to speak and live "DOG." You are not teaching the dog anything he does not already know. All you are doing is showing the dog that you understand his language and expect him to respect you and live by your rules.

When we establish a meaningful bond with our dog we will both wake up everyday wanting to spend time together. Do not ever underestimate the happiness this kind of relationship can bring to your life.

Many people would think this was a cute, safe situation – it is not. This is not a happy dog.

Basic Dog Obedience

DVD / 4 Hrs.
#302-D $40.00
leerburg.com/302.htm

This video pertains to all breeds

The goal of this video is to teach people how to train their own dog to become a well mannered family pet. Our DVD was last updated in early 2007. It was originally produced in 1982 and has gone through a number of updates. With each release, it gets better and better.

The problem with taking your dog to obedience class is that the dog is expected to learn new commands under extreme distraction (i.e. when it is surrounded by 10 or 20 other dogs). This is not the correct way to train a dog. In fact, it's totally unfair to the dog.

There are four phases to dog training:

1. The Learning Phase
2. The Correction Phase
3. The Proofing Phase
4. The Maintenance Phase

In the learning phase new commands should be introduced in a distraction free environment; like your kitchen or your back yard or an environment that the dog is used to living in.

We teach new commands through positive motivation. During this phase we never correct the dog for not performing the command. It would be unfair to give a correction during this phase because the dog has not yet learned the meaning of the command.

When the dog has learned a command but then refuses to do it, it is time to move into the correction phase of training. This is where the dog learns that if it does not do what it is told to do, it will get a correction. Every dog is different; our video shows how to determine when to give corrections and what level of correction to give different dogs.

When the dog consistently performs obedience commands at home, it is ready for the distraction or proofing stage of training. During this phase we teach the dog that it must mind no matter where it is or what is going on around it. This means it must follow your commands when people come to your house, when other dogs are around, when on a walk, or when playing with toys.

Dog training never ends. It is in the maintenance phase of training that our dogs learn that we are always constant in our expectations. We show him that we always expect him to follow our commands.

Our DVD will teach you how to train the basic commands of Sit, Down, Come, Stay, Heel, and go to your place.

I do not recommend organized obedience classes until a dog reaches the distraction phase of its training. By this point obedience classes are fun. How else could you get 20 friends and their dogs together to help proof your dog's obedience commands?

There are 3 concepts in dog training that new trainers must understand before they begin to work with their dog:

1. How to break a command down into small component parts that your dog can understand.
2. How to effectively praise your dog. This video will teach you how and when to praise. You will learn what happens when you praise too much or to little.
3. How to administer a proper correction for your dog's temperament. You also will learn when to correct, and just as important, when not to correct your dog. I also explain what to do when you make a mistake and correct too hard, or what to do when you correct at the wrong time.

The training concepts in this video are broken down into step by step increments that even young children can understand. For further information on this DVD please view our web page at leerburg.com/302.htm.

We strongly recommend people establish pack structure before they begin formal obedience training. If you are a new dog owner your goal should be to create a calm submissive dog. This road to accomplishing this is explained in our DVD titled ESTABLISHING PACK STRUCTURE WITH THE FAMILY DOG. That's why we recommend that new dogs owners get both Basic Obedience and our Establishing Pack Structure DVD.

Dealing with Dominant & Aggressive Dogs

DVD / 3 Hrs. 30 Mins.
#301-D $49.00
leerburg.com/301.htm

While I have seen a number of books that define dominance, I have never seen a book, much less a DVD, that trains people how to properly deal with or train dominant dogs. If your dog is growling at you, your family members, your friends, or visitors to your home then you need to take steps to control this aggression.

Every year hundreds of thousands of dogs go through obedience classes. The majority of dominant dogs that go through these classes come out just as dominant as before they started. The reason for this is that instructors and owners do not address issues of pack drive and rank within the pack.

Our DVD was produced to help people analyze their dog's aggression problems. I then provide information to help owners solve these problems.

The vast majority of local dog behaviorists are unqualified to offer advice on dog aggression or dominance. Many think the solution to dominance and aggression is through positive motivation. These people are almost always wrong. The solution is always through respect and leadership.

This DVD provides enough information to help dog owners either solve these problems themselves or be in a position to determine if a local individual is qualified to assist in their dominant or aggressive dog problems.

This DVD covers:

1. The types of dominance and the triggers that cause a dog to display this dominance
2. Recognizing the signs of dominance
3. Living with and training a dominant dog
4. Problem solving
5. Picking a behaviorist

If your dog is becoming animal aggressive and you want to learn how to live with and control an aggressive dog this DVD will help you.

How to Raise a Working Puppy

DVD / 1 Hr. 15 Mins.
117-D $40.00
leerburg.com/117.htm

There is a big difference between how one should raise a working puppy and how pet owners raise their pets. Working puppies are expected to look at their world with more self confidence.

It does not make any difference if you are raising a Schutzhund puppy, a police service dog puppy, a puppy for personal protection work, or a puppy for competition obedience or agility. They can all benefit by making some simple changes in how they are brought up and handled.

This is not a bite training video. It is a video teaching people how we raise our personal pups here at Leerburg®. Cindy Rhodes, my partner and kennel manager, has raised more working puppies than anyone I know. I also have bred more working puppies than anyone I know. We have put our heads together to come up with a program that will benefit anyone interested in raising working puppies. I have 45 years and Cindy has over 30 years of experience raising and training dogs. This video allows you to benefit from our experience.

In this video we outline in a step-by-step manner how to socialize, imprint, and prepare your puppy for his or her working career. This is a common sense approach that anyone can do.

The key to raising a successful working puppy is to have a plan and make the best use of the time you spend with your dog. An example of this is: one can take their pup for a walk and have it just be exercised; or one can take their pup for a walk and make it an experience in which the pup gets exercise, along with a chance to learn MARKERS and be introduced to environments that provide a small level of stress for the pup to learn to work through.

To help you form that plan this dog training DVD deals with the following topics:

1. Should the working pup be a house dog or a kennel dog?
2. How to manage and neutralize a working pup to training collars.
3. How we teach a working puppy that a vehicle is going to be a big part of its working career.
4. How a working puppy has to learn to be neutral to other dogs. We explain the protocol in how we approach this process.
5. How we socialize, or we say "neutralize," our pups to strange environments.
6. One of the differences between a pet and a working puppy is that we are not as concerned with the manners of a working puppy. With that said, there are certain manners that we do consider important and we start work on them at a very early age.
7. It is very common for new trainers to over exercise their puppy. We cannot tell anyone exactly how much to exercise their pup, but we do talk about some of the guidelines that we take into consideration.
8. We have a section in the DVD on medical issues and a working puppy. It is a given that a working puppy is going to be exposed to more examinations by a stranger (a Vet) than the average dog. We believe that a little forethought at an early age goes a long way towards eliminating a dog getting stressed over this as an adult.
9. We have a section on games and toys.
10. If you are raising a working puppy you are probably going to have a dog with a degree of drive. While this video does not show how to bring out that drive (my video Building Drive and Focus does that) - we do caution people that "JUST BECAUSE YOUR PUP CAN DO SOMETHING DOES NOT MEAN IT SHOULD DO SOMETHING."

Remote Collar Training for Pet Owners

DVD / 2 Hrs. 45 Mins.
#318-D $40.00
leerburg.com/318.htm

Until now there has never been a well done training video that teaches pet owners the concepts of how to train with an electric collar. In my opinion the videos that come with various manufacturers collars are terrible. Our DVD solves this problem and is not brand specific.

When used properly low level stimulation from a remote collar is one of the most humane methods ever developed to train dogs. I call it training with an invisible leash. There is a myth that stimulation from an e-collar involves pain. This is simply not true. The majority of the time the levels we use in training cause a sensation that gets the dogs attention but they do not involve any pain.

There are a number of old school theories of how to train with a remote collar. I explain these methods in my DVD and then tell you why the methods I offer are the best I have seen in 27 years of remote collar training.

The goal of all dog training is to teach our dog to follow a voice command. My training methods teach a dog that the stimulation from an e-collar comes from the owner and only after the dog refuses a known command.

Old school trainers make a dog wear the collar for a couple of weeks to condition the dog to collar training. I explain a much better way.

Our DVD also explains what a dog should know before starting e-collar training. It explains how to determine what level of stimulation your dog should be trained with. Every dog is different and every situation is different. I explain the concepts of using the collar and the protocol for taking a dog through each step or stage of this training.

There is also a section on using a remote collar to solve some behavioral problems, like dog aggression.

Building Drive & Focus

DVD / 2 Hrs.

leerburg.com/101e.htm

This 2 hour DVD will help any dog trainer who wants to take their dog beyond Basic Dog Obedience. It teaches people how to bring their dog's drive up to a genetic potential. The work in this DVD also develops a relationship of trust and respect between the dog and handler. When a dog is able to be placed in high-drive we then teach it how to focus and concentrate under distraction and yet still maintain drive.

Dogs must learn to remain in high-drive and concentrate for 15 minutes if they are going to do well in Obedience, Agility or Schutzhund competitions. We show how to teach a dog that the heel, sit, and down exercises are drive exercises and not compulsion exercises.

Bernhard Flinks is one of Germany's top Schutzhund and Police K-9 competitors. He has been in the German Bundesseiger Prufung (the German National Schutzhund Championships) six times. On three of those occasions he had the highest scoring protection dog in the competition. In his 4th Bundesseiger Prufung he had the second highest scoring dog in protection. In 2002 he finished 13th with his dog Itor.

Bernhard is known in Germany for his ability to train dogs to work in high drive and bite with deep, full, calm grips. He is considered a master of grip training.

This video shows the foundation of prey drive development. The greatest part of this foundational training is that all of this work is done by the handler at home.

Bernhard is one of the first sport instructors who places a great deal of emphasis on the relationship between the dog and its handler. His program teaches handlers how to build a relationship of trust and understanding. In his seminars he often says that this training program establishes a better relationship with your dog than letting the dog sleep in your bed at night.

This is the perfect soft, rubber ball on a string. It does not have a bell inside for the dog to accidentally swallow. In training, in order to build drive, it is important not to use a hard rubber ball on a string. A hard ball can actually reduce drive if you accidentally hit the dog in the head as you work the dog. Trainers should never use tennis balls because their dog's saliva combines with the glue in the cover of the ball and decays the tooth enamel. If you are going to train using the Bernhard Flinks method to build drive you will need a ball on a string. Colors may vary.

Ball Clip #894-1 $ 12.00
leerburg.com/894.htm

This ball clip is made of metal. It is used when you are doing focus and drive training. By clipping the ball to the ball clip around your neck, it allows to have your hands free and lets the dog focus on the ball and the handler's face, rather than their hands. Used by Bernhard Flinks during Leerburg® seminars.

Preparing Your Dog for the Helper

“The Foundation of Grip Training”

DVD / 4 Hrs.
 #310-D $65.00
leerburg.com/310.htm

This is the training video that follows “Building Drive and Focus.” This video teaches the handler how to prepare a dog to start protection work on a helper. Over the years trainers have been led to believe that they needed an experienced training helper to teach a dog the foundation of bite development. This was not accurate.

While we will always need good helpers, Bernhard Flinks is changing the way we look at bite development. He is teaching trainers that through proper play and drive building exercises we don’t need to introduce our young dogs to a helper until they are 10 or 12 months old. This 4 hour DVD covers that training in detail.

Bernhard shows people (through a step-by-step training program) how to work with their own dogs at home or at their training club. If you work your dog for 1 1/2 to 2 minutes, two or three times a day, trainers can establish the foundation and technique of gripping, biting, carrying, and outing.

The foundation of all Schutzhund bite work is a full calm grip. No one gets full points in Schutzhund unless their dog demonstrates a full calm grip. Bernhard is known in Germany as a master of GRIP TRAINING. He has been in the Bundessieger Prufung 6 times with three different dogs. He had the highest protection score three times, the second highest one time and SG twice (but with perfect grips on his current dog, Itor). No one is better at grip development than Bernhard Flinks.

The goal of this training video is to teach grip work. Some of the segments of this video are:

1. Teaching the dog to STRIKE the prey item.
2. Teaching the dog to carry and hold the prey item without mouthing.
3. Teaching the dog to run in a circle without mouthing.
4. Teaching the dog to come into our arms and stand calmly without mouthing.
5. Teaching the dog to have a firm hold on the prey item.
6. Teaching the dog to OUT the prey item in a manner that does not promote chewing.
7. Teach the dogs to learn the technique of the escape, attack and courage test without mouthing.

Training the Motivational Retrieve

DVD / 1 Hr. 40 Mins.
 #106-D $50.00
leerburg.com/106.htm

Many trainers feel that a forced retrieve is the only way to obtain a consistent retrieve. This is not the case. Bernhard Flinks has a great program to teach a motivational retrieve. His methods work with dogs that have good prey drive. This training video covers a step by step training program that everyone can use on their dogs. If you care about the relationship you have with your dog you will train the motivational retrieve. You can always resort to force if need be.

I went to Bernhard’s kennel in northern Germany to film this video. That video footage was combined with footage from 5 training seminars that I filmed here in the United States.

We have had excellent reviews from the people who have purchased this video. It has opened the eyes of a lot of sport trainers all over the world. Even though I have produced a Forced Retrieve video, I am not a fan of force training.

Whelping Puppies and Their First 8 Weeks

DVD / 1 Hr. 45 Mins.
#118-D $40.00
leerburg.com/118.htm

This video explains how to prepare and assist a bitch in whelping a litter of puppies. There is extensive video of females whelping pups. It tells the breeder exactly what needs to be done during the birth and throughout the first 8 weeks of a pup's life. Ed Frawley (the owner of Leerburg Kennel) has been breeding German Shepherds since 1978. He has bred over 350 litters. You will benefit from the practical experience he has gained in whelping this many litters.

The video takes you through the trials of dealing with sick puppies. It shows exactly how to tube feed a weak puppy and provides a medical program to follow for the entire litter.

As puppies go from day one to 8 weeks of age, they go through a series of changes or stages of development. The video is divided into weekly segments. We explain the added responsibilities of the breeder as the pups approach and go through the weaning process. There is a list of "Dos and Don'ts" to raising a healthy litter to 8 weeks of age.

If you thought breeding dogs was a simple matter you may change your mind after watching this video. We constantly have people tell us that they watch this video before, during, and after a litter is whelped. The concepts that are explained in this video can be applied to every breed of dog. Please view our web site and read the testimonials from the people who have used the video.

Training Police Service Dogs

DVD / 1 Hr. 40 Mins.
#104-D $65.00
leerburg.com/104.htm

This video assumes the viewer understands the basics of bite training. If you have never trained a protection dog, we recommend you first purchase our video series on bite development: "The First Steps of Bite Training" and "The First Steps of Defense."

Many police departments waste THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS in officer training time with dogs that never should have been selected as a Patrol Dog. Our video on "Training a Police Service Dog" shows how to test a dog to determine if it has the necessary drive to do police work.

Some dogs make excellent personal protection dogs, but are not good enough for police work. We show exactly where to draw the line between a Personal Protection Dog and a Police Service Dog.

The majority of accidental training bites are caused from equipment failure or handler errors. Our video shows what equipment to use. We include an excellent section on leash handling during bite training.

We show how to train a dog to target its bite to the entire body starting with leg bites, then leg to arm transfers, arm to leg transfers, and finally, back and shoulder bites.

Police dogs are often sent off leash, so we show how to put "off leash control" into the dogs. Off leash control is a must for every department that wants to eliminate accidental bites.

We show how to train a K-9 to work a traffic stop. The dog must learn when he can and cannot leave the car.

This video has detailed sections on blind work, field searches, and building searches. Building searches are one of the most hazardous duty assignments a K-9 officer is required to perform. Our training methods focus on officer survival.

This video does not deal with training a police dog to track. If you have an interest in training service dogs to track you should refer to the 3 training videos (205, 207, 208) that I have done with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP). The RCMP has the best tracking dogs in the world. These videos will show how they catch 95% of the suspects they track in rural areas.

Bark & Hold Training for Police Service Dogs

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#123-D $65.00
leerburg.com/123.htm

Training a police dog the bark & hold (B&H) is very different from training a sport dog the B&H. Most service dogs come from the ranks of sport dogs. They must quickly change their view of the helper from someone that is a prey object, to someone who is a fighting partner. Trainers do not have months to accomplish this, in most cases it must be done in weeks.

This requires different training methods and a different attitude toward barking. No longer does the dog sit closely to the helper barking in a challenging manner, hoping to make the helper flee so he can get a bite. Rather, the dog stands back 2 or 3 meters (because he realizes the suspect can hurt him) and he barks to notify his handler that he has found the suspect.

A police dog must now view the helper as a fighting partner and not the motor behind his prey item or his sleeve. The bark and hold for a police dog must come from fight drive.

Fight drive is an inherited characteristic. It is not something that can be trained into a dog. Fight drive is often confused as defense. It is not defense. A dog becomes defensive when it is put in a situation where it is concerned for its own safety. Dogs are not comfortable when they are working in defense. Fight drive on the other hand is based on experience and self confidence. When a dog is working in fight drive he is confident of his ability to dominate the suspect under every circumstance and in every environment. In this video there is an extensive section dealing with fight drive work, on green dogs and experienced dogs.

The thing that surprises conventional trainers is the decoy work for this method of bark & hold training. It is easier and it makes a lot more sense than what most people are used to. Our video explains the decoy work in detail.

Dogs that work in fight drive rather than prey drive are a lot easier for the handlers to control. This video shows how to get a serious bark and hold out of a genetically correct dog. The video is a must for every K-9 handler and sport trainer that wants to train a more serious dog.

If you would like to learn more about the B&H for Police Service Dogs, visit my web site <http://leerburg.com>. I have written several excellent articles on the drives of protection training and the bark & hold for police service dogs. You will also find articles on training police tracking dogs.

Muzzle Fighting for Police Service Dogs

DVD / 1 Hr. 20 Mins.
#121-D $65.00
leerburg.com/121.htm

Our training video deals with "Muzzle Fighting" for police service dogs. Working in muzzle is one of the least understood exercises in protection work. The video takes the viewer step by step through muzzle fighting.

The reason we chose the term "MUZZLE FIGHTING" is because there is a real difference between what we show in this video, and what happens when someone just throws a muzzle on a dog and sends him after a helper without a sleeve. If a dog is genetically capable of muzzle fighting we will show you how to train it to use its body to go out and knock the snot out of someone.

The goal of this video is to train a dog in muzzle to alert on a passive suspect located some distance from his handler. If that suspect tries to fight or flee, the dog is to physically fight the man by punching him center mass with his body. Training a dog to indicate on a suspect that is running away from him, stimulating him, or agitating him is easy. Training a dog to indicate on a man standing still, or a man laying quietly on the ground is another matter all together.

This video explores the various muzzles on the market. It shows exactly what a dog must be doing in bite work before it is ready to be introduced to muzzle fighting. We go through all of the training steps for muzzle and show examples of what happens to dogs when they get ahead of themselves in training.

We also show what happens to dogs that are not genetically capable of doing this work. We go through the training steps for bark and hold in muzzle, and we show you how to set up scenarios in muzzle, that fit your needs. This video is also ideal for the helper, because too many times people ask friends or other officers to help them with their muzzle work. Too often this creates problems.

Good muzzle training adds "fight drive" to a dog. It teaches the dog to work center mass on a helper's body and not focus on sleeves and other equipment. Sport dog trainers can learn a lot about improving their dogs through this aspect of police work. Teaching a sport dog to do bark and hold in muzzle really produces flashy SCHUTZHUND dogs.

Training a police service dog in the muzzle is a must for K-9 officers that wish to work the street with a dog.

Tactical Training with Police Service Dogs

DVD / 1 Hr. 40 Mins.
#111-D $49.00
leerburg.com/111.htm

Police K-9 training programs need to simulate actual street situations. In this video we set up a number of common scenarios that have actually happened with K-9 Teams. We show what happens when the average Police Service Dog is placed in these situations. We recommend several changes to training programs that will compensate for past mistakes. You will see how these changes result in a safer situation for the officers and their dogs.

When a K-9 Handler responds to a call with outside officers who have never worked with police dogs, the handler must be familiar with the procedure to control the situation. In this video we explain how to organize a search team. We explain how to brief the team on each member's responsibilities. You will see several excellent searches and you will also see what can happen when a K-9 search goes bad.

Safe gun handling reaches a new dimension when a dog is added. Working a dog under friendly fire, handler fire and shots fired by the suspect are all covered in detail. We show how dangerous a dog can be to his own handler and other officers if it is aggressive to gun fire. We also show how to train a dog not to be aggressive to gun fire. Arrest procedures with a dog are covered in detail.

Training Building Search for Police K-9 Dogs

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#122-D $65.00
leerburg.com/122.htm

This video deals with the process of developing a police dog's skill in locating criminal suspects hiding in a building.

When you watch a good service dog doing a building search he makes it look easy. Believe me it is not. New officers often over estimate their dog's ability to perform this skill. They fall into the "NOSE TRAP," that is where a handler assumes that because his dog has a good sense of smell the dog will not have a problem learning a building search.

Over estimating your dog's scenting ability is not only bad dog training, it could very well get you killed. This almost happened to me. What I cover in this video is very serious training for police K-9 officers.

The video has a number of training segments. There is a short segment explaining what kind of temperament a dog should have for this work, there is a segment where a dog should be in training before starting Building Search training, there is a segment on the most common problems that dogs face when they start the training and there is a detailed step by step breakdown of the training. These training steps cover pursuits into a building, announcements by the handler, learning indications, off lead control and passive suspects, muzzle work and directed searches in a building.

This video has had excellent reviews by very experienced K-9 handlers. Check out our web site for more details on this video.

Using a Narcotics detection dog is "the most unobtrusive method available to search a suspect's vehicle, house, or belongings." ## Training Off Leash Control with Directed Search for Police K-9

DVD / 1 Hr. 30 Mins.
#125-D $50.00
leerburg.com/125.htm

The directed search is one of the more important exercises that police K-9 handlers must teach their dog. It is used in building and area searches.

If a service dog is to work safely off leash it must know the directed search. In today's society K-9 handlers must have complete control over their dogs at all times. The training program for the directed search is an excellent way to accomplish this goal.

The training segments for this tape are:

- Training the Recall under Extreme Distraction
- Teaching the Blind Search on a Training Field
- Teaching the Directed Search in a Building
- Drive Building Exercises for Directed Search

This video and the building search video were done with the help of Kevin Sheldahl. Kevin is a full time police K-9 officer plus an International Police Dog Judge for WPO, PSP, and DPO. I feel he is one of the top police K-9 instructors in the world. Check our web site for more details.

that will provide you with a dog that not only finds drugs, but also a dog that will not false hit on cutting agents and other odors.

This video details selection testing dogs for narcotics work. We demonstrate selection testing with several breeds of dogs. The video discusses the types of narcotics to train with and the safety measures a handler is required to take with the different types of drugs.

We demonstrate how to start a dog in training and how to advance him through his training in a step by step manner until he is ready to work the street.

Training sections also include: leash handling, building the dog's indications, training the dog to indicate more than one type of drug, training the dog OFF of cutting agents, and other scents. We discuss: when to use corrections and when not to, how to deal with handler errors in training, how to organize a search, how to read your dog during a search, and how to proof a dog during training. There is also a short section on court testimony.

Bite Training Puppies

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#108-D $65.00
leerburg.com/108.htm

There are areas of dog training, whether it be Police Service work, KNPV, Schutzhund, Personal Protection, or the Ring Sports, that require a dog to learn to bite people. By selecting the right pup and then imprinting as much bite work as possible at an early age, we end up with a much better adult.

The first 45 minutes of this video deals with the instincts and drives to look for in selecting a puppy for protection training. We show puppy tests that explain how to select the right pup from a litter. This video was filmed in Germany and America over a 5 year period. We filmed a German litter being tested and then went back two years later and filmed one of these dogs just before it got a SchH III.

The tests indicated that dogs from this litter would all do protection work, but they would not make good obedience competitors. Our selection tests were 100% accurate in forecasting the temperament of these dogs. The dogs all did good protection work, but were stubborn in obedience.

For a dog to become a successful protection dog, it must have its prey drive developed at a young age. There is a window of opportunity that takes place between 8 weeks and 14 or 15 months. If the prey drive is not worked properly during this period, most dogs never develop to their full potential. This video shows how to start this process.

Prey drive in a puppy is simply the drive to chase, grab, and play tug of war with a prey item. The prey item is either a sack, a rag, or a puppy tug. We use the prey drive to teach the puppy skills it will need later to use in protection.

During this early imprinting, we show how to teach 8 week old pups to grip (or bite) firm. We teach it to tolerate the stick, so it won't look at it in a negative way. We teach the pup that to win its prey it must not bite and pull back (or tug back) but rather it must bite fuller and deeper into the prey. This is called a COUNTER into the prey.

All of this training is done by the handler. I compare this to a father teaching his child to fight. A father can teach his child the basic skills of judo or karate and it is all done in the framework of being a game. It is the same thing with the handler working his own pup in prey drive. This video explains the information needed to teach a puppy the basic skills of bite work.

While this training is the foundation for protection or attack work, the pups are not capable of doing serious handler protection until they are mentally mature enough to deal with the stress of a real encounter. Most dogs are not mentally mature until they are 18 to 30 months old.

After breeding over 350 litters of German Shepherds, competing in Schutzhund during the early and mid 1980's, and then working a police K-9 for 10 years as a Deputy Sheriff, I have learned that it is absolutely necessary to start protection training at a very early age. The dogs that are started young are much better prepared to deal with the stress of defensive training that takes place when they mature.

The First Steps of Bite Training

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#101B-D $65.00
leerburg.com/101-b.htm

When done properly, protection training is extremely complex. If the foundation for protection work is not 100% correct, it is only a matter of time before the dog and handler run into problems. The goal in producing this video was to show that a person with little or no dog training experience can understand how to lay this foundation.

The video begins with 6 month old dogs. It explains the drives of protection training. It explains how a dog's drives are effected by its nerves and genetics. The viewer learns how to identify the drive thresholds of his or her dog, and then uses that information to develop a training program tailored to their specific dog.

The "helper" is the person that gets bit during protection training. In a perfect world everyone would have an experienced helper to work with their young dogs. If that were the case we would almost all have super dogs. Few people are lucky enough to have a helper with any skill at all to work their dog.

This video shows exactly what the handler can do with their own dog to build a foundation for protection work. Just as importantly, we show the exact spot in training where the handler has to get a helper to continue the bite training. So the video answers the question "How much can I do to train my own dog in protection training?"

This video is a must for training new helpers. It identifies the drives a dog works in, critical distance, and avoidance. So the new helper has a clear picture of exactly what their role is in the training process.

The video is organized into the following categories:

1. Drives and Drive Thresholds
2. How Nerves Effect Drive Thresholds
3. How to Organize a Training Session
4. Equipment & German Commands
5. The Role of the Handler in Bite Training
6. The Role of the Helper in Protection Training
7. Setting the Prey Drive in Young Dogs
8. The First Bite on a Sleeve
9. Developing a Firm, Calm, Grip
10. Recognizing & Training the Counter
11. Contesting the Prey
12. Training the Carry
13. Taking the Prey Away from the Dog with the OUT
14. Teaching the Pursuit and Targeting Off Leash
15. Setting up a Training Session Based on Skills
16. What can be Done with a Dog that Lacks Prey Drive

The training in this video will work with dogs of any age from 6 months and older.

The First Steps of Defense

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#101D-D $65.00
leerburg.com/101-d.htm

For a dog to do police service work, serious personal protection work, or good Schutzhund work, it must have a solid foundation in defensive drive training. Before defensive training can take place, the dog must have already gone through prey bite development and it must have reached mental maturity. Starting defense work too young can ruin a dog's working ability for life.

Defensive drive is very different from prey drive. A dog's defensive drive is the drive to protect itself from a perceived threat. Prey is the drive to chase and capture prey. These are two totally different concepts in the mind of the dog.

You can learn about prey drive development in my video titled "The First Steps of Bite Training" (video 101B-D) or you can view my internet homepage and read a number of training articles that I have written on this subject. This information is located at <http://leerburg.com/articles.htm>.

Dogs reach mental maturity at different ages. Some as young as 16 months, while others don't mature until they are over 30 months old. The training in this video should not begin until a dog is mature enough to handle the stress of defensive training.

A dog is not in a comfortable situation when it is initially working in defense. In defensive work, the dog is being threatened and thinks it is about to be attacked. As a result it is stressed. We cannot put young pups or young adults in this position. This would be compared to expecting an 8 year old boy to defend his home from burglars.

Our video shows how to take a young dog through the steps of defensive training. This is an extremely critical phase of a dog's training career. The reason for this is that there is a fine line between a dog defending itself, and the fight or flight response. In protection training we never want to push a dog into avoidance.

For years people in this country have only trained dogs in prey drive. In fact, even today many dogs are still trained only in prey drive. This is a serious mistake if the handler ever expects that dog to do any form of personal protection. Dogs trained only in prey do not protect their handlers.

The helper work for defense can never be done by the dog's owner. It must always be done by a helper that is adept at reading and understanding the drives and temperament of defense. If you are training a new helper, we recommend that your helper watch and learn from the video. The information we cover is as important for the helper as it is for the dog.

Training Personal Protection Dogs

DVD / 1 Hr. 35 Mins.
#105-D $65.00
leerburg.com/105.htm

This video assumes a dog has already gone through bite development. This means "you and your dog" know and understand the material in our bite development videos. If you need to know exactly what videos cover bite development go to my web site for this training video (<http://leerburg.com/105.htm>) and you will see a list of videos I recommend before the work on this video starts.

Training Personal Protections Dogs provides the information needed to convert a sport Schutzhund dog or a dog with basic bite training into a Personal Protection Dog. The first portion covers GERMAN and ENGLISH commands used in bite training; followed by discussions on safe equipment and dog handling during bite work; then basic tests for Personal Protection dogs, and "Learning Curves in Bite Training."

This video shows how to target the dog's bite to different parts of the body. This is taught in segments using body bite suits. We begin with Leg Bites; then Leg to Arm Transfers; then Leg to Arm and Arm to Leg Transfers; then Arm to Arm Transfers; and finally Shoulder and Back Bites.

Although the concepts are similar to those covered in our video 104 "Police Service Dogs," most Personal Protection dogs are not as strong as patrol dogs, and therefore need more training steps in their program. We show you how to do this. Muzzle work is the only way to proof a dog that has been trained in body bites. Muzzle training is broken into 6 steps followed by a section on "Helper Hints" for effective muzzle work.

We then discuss 4 methods of putting defense or civil drive into your dog. Civil drive is the ability of a dog to alert on a man without protective equipment on.

Strong dogs with a lot of civil drive, will turn on their handlers if they receive too much pressure during training. Although this type of dog is not common in America, you need to know how to safely handle it when you see it. This video demonstrates 4 methods to safely work strong, civil dogs. You learn when one method should be used over another.

#203-D $65.00
leerburg.com/203.htm

This video was filmed over a 3 year period in Germany & America. It is one of the most comprehensive studies ever done on sport tracking (foot step tracking). The video has had rave reviews from a number of different dog training magazines, including "Front & Finish." The AKC even requested a copy for their Judges' library.

This video uses all motivational methods to teach a dog to track. While we discuss the difference between motivational tracking and forced tracking, we do not teach any forced tracking in this video. The video begins with the theory of track scent. There is a section on how to select tracking fields for dogs of different skill levels. We show good and bad fields for beginner dogs and the more advanced dogs.

There is an excellent section on track laying. In this style of tracking the handler lays his own tracks. You are shown the best ways to remember where your track has been laid. You will learn how to use food in training a foot step tracking dog. This is broken down into a step by step program that anyone can follow.

To be competitive in tracking, you need to know when the dog is ready for cross winds, tail winds, and cover changes. Understanding wind currents is a must if you are going to develop a nose to the ground, step by step tracking dog. We show you how to make wind currents WORK FOR YOU in developing a sound training program.

leerburg.com/204.htm

This video is designed to follow "Training a Competition Tracking Dog" (video 203). It shows the common mistakes competitors make in handling a tracking dog. This is not a police video.

Hard Surface Tracking "It's Not Impossible"

DVD / 1 Hr.
#210-D $39.00
leerburg.com/210.htm

This video was filmed in Holland while visiting the Dutch police dog schools in Nunspeet and Rotterdam. I am not aware of any better hard surface tracking instructors in the world. The key to hard surface tracking is selecting the right dog. You will see the type of dogs the Dutch use and I will point out a few of their training techniques in this video. The purpose for this video is to show police dog handlers that hard surface tracking is possible if you have the right dog and are willing to put in the training time.

Track Laying for the Police Tracking Dog

DVD / 55 Mins.
#207-D $30.00
leerburg.com/207.htm

The hardest part about training Police or S&R tracking dogs is finding track layers. Every time you ask a new person to lay tracks you have to go through the same ritual. You explain all of the basics and all of the terminology for what needs to be done.

This video is designed to train new track layers. We cover how to walk a straight leg, double laying tracks, kicking corners, marking high to low veg, marking road crossings, marking fence crossings, where to lay articles, and much, much more.

In my video titled "Training Police Tracking Dogs - Level One," I only spent about 10 minutes of the 2 hour training video on track laying. This video spends 55 minutes on the subject. This video will pay for itself in time saved in training new people.

Training Tracking Dogs S&R or Police

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#205-D $65.00
leerburg.com/205.htm

There are 2 types of tracking: "foot step tracking" and "tracking through drive." Foot step tracking is taught with food and a ball. It is designed for sport dogs. Tracking through drive is designed for service dogs. Here the dog is taught to follow the track at a dead run. There is always a person at the end of every track. Tracking through drive is the only way to train a S&R dog or a Police Service Dog.

If you are a K-9 officer who trains your service dog with food and a ball you already know that you only catch 3 or 4% of the people you track. The RCMP (Royal Canadian Mounted Police) catch 45-50% of all the people they track. This includes suburban and urban tracking. If a suspect runs in the country, they catch 95% of them.

This video was filmed in Alberta, Canada at the police dog training center for the RCMP. The RCMP instructors are the best tracking dog instructors in the world. They have been training police tracking dogs since 1935. I filmed three videos with them. This is the first video. This video will show how the RCMP can train a dog (in 60 training tracks) to follow a 1 hour old, 5 KM, unknown track that contains back tracks, road crossings, fence crossings, and articles.

The RCMP has 3 levels of tracking. This video covers Level One, or tracking in a rural environment. Level Two and Three (Video 208) deals with suburban and urban tracking.

I have had literally hundreds of K-9 officers call or write to say, "This is the only way to train a police dog to track." They wish they had seen this video when starting to train their dogs. Many officers have said, "This training method put the fire back into my police dog. Now he enjoys tracking and we are catching people that used to get away."

If you would like to read several excellent training articles on this subject, please go to the article section on my home page at <http://leerburg.com/articles.htm>. If you love tracking like I do, you will not regret the effort. We have the best K-9 home page on the internet.

The RCMP use these three video tapes I did with them in their training school. All new K-9 handlers view these videos.

Training Urban & Suburban Tracking Dogs

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#208-D $65.00
leerburg.com/208.htm

This video was also done with the RCMP in Canada. In it we train a dog to track in a suburban and urban environment. In Level One Tracking (Video 205) we taught the dog to track in the country. The reason all police dogs must first learn to track in the country is because the country is relatively distraction free. We actually teach the dog to track in the country and then use a portion of the Level Two & Three to teach the dog to deal with the distractions of the city.

In this video the dogs learn to deal with extreme distractions: dogs barking on the other side of a fence, cats in back yards, and kids following along. The dogs also learn to deal with much smaller scent pictures, more cross tracks, and extreme cover changes.

Most people think that handling a tracking dog simply means holding on to the line and just following the dog. In fact, completing a successful track is 75% proper handling and 25% good dog work.

This video teaches hard surface road crossings, along with extended periods of track loss (where the dog must search and search for a lost track.) We teach the handler the true meaning of "reading your dog." Every successful K-9 handler is a master at recognizing negatives and assisting his dog in re-acquiring the lost track.

If you are a K-9 officer in a large city, do not buy this video thinking you can skip the Level One country tracking just because you never track outside the city. The country work is critical to the development of a good tracking dog. Dogs must first learn to track in the country before they are exposed to the distractions of city tracking. If you try and skip country tracking you will fail, guaranteed.

Training Competition Heeling

“With Tom Rose”

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#304-D $45.00
leerburg.com/304.htm

This is the best obedience video on the market for teaching people how to train a competition heeling dog. This video covers a lot more than just heeling. Tom deals with sits, downs, fronts, and much more.

We teach how to get and keep eye contact with the dog during obedience work. The dog is taught to always focus its attention on the handler's face. If the dog understands an exercise and is always giving eye contact with the handler throughout an exercise it is less likely to miss a command. It is also going to look great for the judge.

In this video we use the students from Tom Rose's Dog Training School working with untrained dogs. By including these students (along with Tom working his own dog) you will see the correct way to train and you will see the most common mistakes all new handlers make.

Our customers are always telling us that what sets our videos apart from all other dog obedience videos is we use untrained dogs. Where as, all of the other videos on the market use fully trained dogs to demonstrate an exercise. Untrained dogs will almost always have the same problems and make the same mistakes. People learn more from watching untrained dogs being worked.

Training the Jumps

DVD / 1Hr. 30 Mins.
#307-D $45.00
leerburg.com/307.htm

This video deals with Schutzhund and AKC jump training. We have combined the best training techniques from our many visits to Germany, England, throughout the United States, and Canada. You will learn the secrets of Schutzhund, Agility, and Competition Obedience trainers in this one video.

The Bar Jump, the High Jump, the Broad Jump, and the Inclined Wall are all covered in detail. Training a dog to jump safely and with consistency requires a step by step training program. Some dogs are not as coordinated as others; we offer ideas on how to help these dogs.

If you follow our motivational approach to this work you will end up with a competitive jumper.

Training the Send Away

DVD / 1 Hr. 25 Mins.
#306-D $45.00
leerburg.com/306.htm

The instructor in this training video is Ed Frawley from Leerburg® Kennels. This video teaches people how to train a dog to do a motivational send away for the sport of Schutzhund or the AKC obedience ring. It does not teach a forced send away. If the training is done correctly you can get fast, straight send aways from your dog.

The video breaks the exercise into component parts. Some of this work can be started at a very young age. In fact the training can begin with small puppies. We explain how old a dog must be to add the different levels of difficulty.

The video has an excellent trouble shooting and problem solving section. In the trouble shooting section we analyze actual Schutzhund trials in which dogs fail the send away.

Training the Forced Retrieve

DVD / 1 Hr. 35 Mins.
#305-D $45.00
leerburg.com/305.htm

In my opinion the best way to train the retrieve is motivational. Unfortunately not all dogs can be trained with motivation. Dogs who will not train motivational need to be force trained.

Over the years there have been a number of methods used to train the forced retrieve: the ear pinch, the electric shock collar, or a line attached to the dog's toe that a handler would pull. While all of these methods work, none work as quickly as the techniques shown in this video.

In this video Tom Rose takes two dogs that had never had retrieval training. They were both holding the article after their first training session.

Tom's method produces the quickest results with the least amount of stress on the dog. You will see that Tom offers very little room for avoidance during this work. He progresses through very small training steps which keeps the stress level to a minimum for the dog.

Over the years I have seen trainers in Europe and the States use one part or another of this program, but I have never seen it put together this way. Tom Rose has refined the forced retrieve to an easily understood program that anyone can follow.

Training Your Agility Dog

DVD / 1 Hr. 35 Mins.
#303-D $45.00
leerburg.com/303.htm

The Agility Dog Sport came to this country from England. It can be compared to a horseman's steeplechase. In the Agility sport, a dog must run through a course with a number of different jumps and climbing apparatus. This is a timed event with detailed rules. The handlers run along with their dogs and direct them to each of the jumps. This is one of the fastest growing sports in America.

This video was filmed in England with Peter Lewis. Peter started training agility in the early 1980's. He is the founder of the Agility Dog Sport. The video approaches every type of jump and climbing article, separately. The training for each jump is broken down into a step by step training method that works on all dogs. Peter's methods are strictly motivational, there is no force used. This results in happy working dogs that literally fly over the jumps.

The video teaches how to train the dog to hit every contact point. It also has a detailed training section on how to handle a dog in an Agility Competition. Unlike AKC Obedience, Agility dogs need to work on the right, the left, in front, and behind the handler. American trainers have never had to approach this type of handling in any other style of training. This video shows you how to "handle" your dog in Agility.

Schutzhund the Dog Sport

DVD / 50 Mins.
#102-D $30.00
leerburg.com/102.htm

Schutzhund is by far the most popular dog sport in Europe, with the first Schutzhund exam taking place in 1901. It's now the fastest growing dog sport in America. Schutzhund came to this country in 1970 when a German immigrant, Gernot Ridel, introduced it in southern California. Gernot traveled the country during the 1970's giving Schutzhund seminars. I attended one of the seminars in 1974 and got hooked.

This video is intended to educate the viewer on what the sport of Schutzhund is all about. You will learn how the sport was formed, and why Schutzhund is the reason German bloodline dogs are so much better than American dogs. There is a section detailing the origins and the history of Schutzhund, and a section explaining the various Schutzhund titles. Much of this video was filmed in Germany.

If you would like to learn more about the sport of Schutzhund, this video is a must. We recommend that new trainers and Schutzhund Clubs purchase this video to get started in this exciting dog sport.

Handler Training for a Companion "B"

DVD / 55 Mins.
#112-D $40.00
leerburg.com/112.htm

In 1992 the rules for Schutzhund were amended to make it mandatory for all dogs to pass a Companion Dog "B" exam before competing in a Schutzhund I Trial.

This video is designed to show the handler exactly what the judge expects from the dog and the handler for a Companion Dog "B." We include video of an actual "B" exam along with computer generated diagrams to make it easier to understand exactly what is expected from the handler.

If I have heard it once, I have heard it a hundred times "I wish I had purchased this video before I started to train my dog." The video is laid out so the viewer can easily understand the steps to the Companion "B," and then design a training program to accomplish a successful examination.

Training Handlers for a Schutzhund I Trial

DVD / 1 Hr. 35 Mins.
#113-D $65.00
leerburg.com/113.htm

The purpose of this video is to teach trainers how to handle a dog in a Schutzhund I Trial, and get the maximum number of points possible. Many times handler errors (and not dog errors) result in points being lost at a competition. Many times it is the handler errors that make the difference between the high scoring dog and the number two placed dog. There are times a dog fails a competition when it could have passed if the handler had only done something a little differently.

This video is dedicated to training handlers and not dog training. The video is divided into 4 major sections:

1. Pre-Trial Preparation
2. Schutzhund I Tracking
3. Schutzhund I Obedience
4. Schutzhund I Protection

The first section on pre-trial preparation, explains how serious competitors prepare for an upcoming competition. We explain how a well prepared handler gets the most out of his dog, and reduces stress on the day of the trial.

The section on tracking begins with: preparing your dog the morning of the trial, reporting to the trial secretary, reporting to the judge with your dog before the track, laying your track for competition (what is acceptable and what is not), tracking your dog, receiving your critique, and finally, how to deal with a dog that is having problems on a track.

The obedience and protection sections are broken down into equally detailed sub-sections. Not only did we try to show the correct way to handle a dog in a trial, we also dealt with the most common handler errors.

I also included a very nice SchH II routine with a 100 point protection score.

Training the New Helper

DVD / 1 Hr. 5 Mins.
#115-D $65.00
leerburg.com/115.htm

This video is intended for the person that has never done agitation or helper work before. If you have a friend, relative, or club member that wants to learn how to take bites, this video is the place to start. It is not a dog training video, it is a video for training people.

It begins with selecting the type of dog to use with new helpers. There is also a short section on the equipment that is needed for this training.

The video begins by teaching the new helper how to take escape bites. The escape is broken down into 6 incremental parts. Each part is examined in slow motion and discussed in great detail. There are numerous examples by helpers, demonstrating the correct way to do this exercise. There is also excellent footage of the most common mistakes new helpers make as they learn proper bite work.

The new helper then learns how to drive the dog. There is a section on the skip drive, and another on the running drive. We show new exercises to improve footwork without the dog. The helpers will learn how to put a dog in the pocket and keep him there. This is followed by a section on taking bites out of the blind, and then re-attack work. These are the most basic of skills, but they are fundamental to all future helper training.

Training the Trial Helper

(Advanced Helper Work)

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#116-D $65.00
leerburg.com/116.htm

This training video was made with the help of Tom Rose and has detailed, step by step training sections. We show exercises that teach helpers footwork for the courage tests, and advanced defensive work with dogs. We detail step by step training sequences that all helpers should work through to develop smooth, frontal catches. We show the correct way to administer stick hits, both from a technical standpoint, and from the judge's viewpoint.

Throughout the video we stress that good helper techniques result in safer work for the dog. Poor helpers hurt dogs. We have set up and filmed some dramatic examples to show what bad timing can do. It is our feeling that this video is going to educate a lot of competitors, handlers, and trainers on advanced helper work.

Poor helper work in training has broken more teeth on good dogs than we would like to think about. This video will teach you techniques to eliminate unnecessary accidents.

If you are a police officer or personal protection trainer, you should get this video. Police helpers need to learn how to do this work properly. Tom is a Schutzhund judge. We reflect what a judge expects from a trial helper and identify the most common helper errors.

This training vest is imported from Europe. The nylon vest has leather shoulder pads along with numerous front and back pockets for tracking lines, tracking articles, tugs, balls, gloves, and anything else you may need in training your dog. There is a large pocket in the back and a drawstring waist. It is a super training vest. It is perfect for police K-9 officers to wear over uniforms when they train.

In September of 2001, I traveled to Holland and filmed a Military and Security Dog Competition on the Nato Military Base in Soest, Holland.

The work for these dogs is similar to the KNPV, in fact most of the dogs have a PH 1 title (KNPV I). There are some subtle differences between the work of these service dogs and the KNPV competition.

They have a regimented program that has been proven to work for everyone. The video also contains highlight footage of KNPV competitions from the Netherlands.

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#455-D $24.00
leerburg.com/455.htm

There are two ring organizations in Belgium. The "NVBK" and "La Societe Royale Saint Hubert." In 2001, I traveled to Eisdan, Belgium and filmed the NVBK Category 2 Championships.

The winner of the 2001 competition was Bart Ballon. Bart is a popular trainer in Europe and around the world. He is known for his seminars (some with Helmut Riaser) on training with electric collars. It is evident by watching his winning performance that he is one of the top dog trainers in the world.

While there are many similarities between the two ring organizations, there are also clear differences. To begin with, all of the St. Hubert dogs (Malinois) are registered dogs, while the majority of NVBK are non-registered dogs.

Both organizations have standardized obedience exercises that do not change from event to event, neither organization has tracking. But both have non-standardized protection routines, which means the competitors do not know what the exact exercises are until the day they arrive. This means that the dogs must go through a great deal of training to be prepared for what the judges set up for the bite work. The helper at this year's event was outstanding. He was one of the best ring helpers I have seen at any ring event.

If you have an interest in Belgian Malinois and have always wondered about the differences between the two Malinois organizations in Belgium, watch a couple of these videos and you will learn the differences between the two.

Mondio Ring 1988, Tournai, Belgium

DVD / 1 Hr. 25 Mins.
#512-D $24.00
leerburg.com/512.htm

The Mondio Ring is gaining in popularity in America. It translates into "WORLD RING." It is a combination of the French Ring Sport, the Belgian Ring Sport, the KNPV, and SCHUTZHUND. It came about as a result of a desire for a dog sport that all the people of Europe could compete in. The sport is difficult for SCHUTZHUND dogs and KNPV dogs. The reason is that the Belgian ring is much more intense, and the French helpers are the fastest in the world.

This video was filmed in 1988 in Tournai, Belgium. Tournai is on the French border near Lille, France. This video is packed with action. You really need to see this to believe what some of these dogs are capable of doing. I have included the most exciting portions of Mondio, in addition to portions of the demonstrations from the Belgian Ring, the French Ring, and the Dutch KNPV. You will see a helper do bite work on his back in a small swimming pool. You will see a dog go through a wall of fire to take a bite. You will see a dog guard an article (when the article is a small girl).

This is the first video of the Mondio Ring. In it you will see the famous Malinois, "BEBBA." He is the highest scoring dog in the history of the Mondio Ring, and certainly one of the finest Malinois to ever live. The Mondio Ring is the most difficult dog sport in the world. As a rule, dogs that come from the Mondio Ring Sport make the best police service dogs.

This is a video that fascinates people. If you have seen other interesting demonstration videos I will say this, "You haven't seen anything until you have seen the Mondio Ring."

Mondio Ring 1998 World Championship

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#444-D $24.00
leerburg.com/444.htm

The Mondio Ring is similar in a lot of ways to the Belgian Ring. I have watched it evolve over the past 10 years into a serious dog sport. You must have a dog with rock solid nerves to compete in this sport. It is also no longer a sport dominated by the French. This year's winner (1998) was from Belgium and the second place dog was from Switzerland.

A Demonstration Video French Ring Sport Netherlands Police IPO Trials of Europe

DVD / 2 Hrs.
#509-D $24.00
leerburg.com/509.htm

The video is divided into three sections. The first is on the Royal Dutch Police Dogs of Holland (KNPV dogs), the second is on the French Ring Dogs of France, and the third covers the IPO Trials of Europe.

The KNPV demonstration features Malinois from Holland. These are some of the hardest dogs I have ever seen. I use slow motion to show some outstanding body bites.

There is an excellent section on the FRENCH RING SPORT using a Malinois which is one of the French National Ring Champions. The helper is Daniel Grutter, one of France's best. I have edited the video to explain what the exercises consist of and what the point structure is in the competition.

Training Techniques for the French Ring

DVD / 1 Hr. 45 Mins.
#107-D $65.00
leerburg.com/107.htm

The French Ring Sport is a new and exciting working dog sport that has come from France. Through it we are exposed to the cutting edge of bite work training.

The French Ring Sport is one of the most demanding working dog sports there is. The French helpers are the most INTENSE in the world. If a dog can work against a good French helper he can work against any helper, any place, any time.

The French have developed leg biting into an art form. We show how they break leg bites into incremental parts and then train the parts. When the parts are trained, we put them all together for the finished product.

The stick used in the ring is a 1-inch thick piece of bamboo that has been split down the middle several times. Some people call it a "clatter stick" (because of the noise it makes when it vibrates). This noise alone will send all but the best dogs running back to their handler. In Schutzhund, a dog is hit twice in an attack. I have footage of a dog taking over 50 hits with a stick in less than a minute. This tape shows you how to use the stick and train a dog to work under it.

In the video we show some of the advanced ring exercises. You will see the training steps involved in the; GUARD THE ARTICLE, the BACKWARD HEEL TO WARD OFF A REAR ATTACK, FOOD REFUSAL, and HOW TO WORK UNDER GUN FIRE.

Training Sheep Herding Dogs

with Karl Fuller

DVD / 1 Hr. 25 Mins.

#505-D $65.00

leerburg.com/505.htm

In 1985, I saw my first HGH Nationals in Europe. This is the type of sheep herding German Shepherd dogs do best. It is also the style of training the AKC has based their herding instinct testing, and course "C" on. I originally felt that the dogs did this work so naturally that they had to be doing it from instinct and not training. I was wrong. Since then I have collected enough information from Karl Fuller of Kirschtal Kennels in West Germany to produce this video.

Karl Fuller has won West Germany's HGH nationals 7 times. He has bred more HGH Siegers and Siegrens than any other breeder. The training concepts in this video are a result of the time Karl has generously spent with my friends and I.

The Continental or Tending style of sheep dog training was developed in the areas of Europe where there are few fences and specific fields that could be grazed. The Tending style is totally different than what most people think of when they see Collies work sheep. Collies drive sheep from behind and cut sheep from the flock. In the Tending style, the sheep are trained to follow the Shepherd and come when called. The dogs act as a living fence to keep the flock in the fields, the Shepherd wants them to graze. Our video shows that while genetics improve performance, systematic step by step work produces a well trained sheep herding dog.

German HGH Championships The HGH Video (In English)

leerburg.com/506.htm

The German Shepherd Dog Club of West Germany (SV) sponsors a small but active group of people (about 5,000) who train their dogs to herd sheep. They have a final competition (Bundesleistungshuten) at the end of every year. This video was filmed in Asslar, West Germany. It is a documentary that explains what exercises are in the competition and how they are scored.

An Introduction to All Breed Herding

by Lynn Leach

DVD / 43 Mins.

#505B-D $45.00

leerburg.com/505b.htm

This is an excellent video. It is one of the first dog training videos that we sell which has not been produced by Leerburg.® The videos I produced were on the tending style of sheep herding. This video deals with training dogs to gather and move sheep.

What makes this video so interesting is that it incorporates 19 different breeds of dogs. You will see how the "strong eyed dogs work" and "loose-eyed dogs work." The strong eyed dogs are the Border Collie and the like. While loose eyed dogs are Rotts and Cattle Dogs etc.

All Breed Herding The Next Step

by Lynn Leach

DVD / 43 Mins.

#505C-D $45.00

leerburg.com/505c.htm

"The Next Step," picks up where the first video finishes. 59 minutes long and begins with ideas to slow your dog down, including the progressive training of the 'stop' command. Advanced training becomes easier if your dog will hold a 'stay' while the handler moves off of the balance point. It teaches respect of the flight zone and a straight walk-up. These skills were touched on in the first video and are more defined in an organized manner so that you can prepare a training plan and move on to the next level. "The Next Step," then demonstrates drills to extend and widen the outrun, followed by trial skills including take pens and freestanding obstacles, and introducing driving.

Feeding an All-Natural Diet

Coming
 December
 2007

DVD
#416 $24.00
leerburg.com/416.htm

This DVD is scheduled to be released in December 2007.

The goal of this video is to educate the dog owner about the different philosophies of raw feeding. We have been feeding a raw diet to our own dogs since the mid 1990's and our ideas are constantly evolving as we become more educated and experienced. There is no ONE method that is perfect and each dog owner should weigh all the options and make their own decisions based on what is best for each individual situation. We hope that after viewing this video, you will be more prepared and educated on the topic of feeding your dog more naturally.

We will go over the benefits of raw feeding, types of raw feeding methods, commercial diets and why we don't feed them. We will also cover the drawbacks and challenges of feeding a raw diet as well as commonly asked questions and myths.

There will be sections on how and where to shop for your dog's food, how much to feed and how to manage your dog's food while traveling.

Training Dogs to Get Along with Horses

DVD / 2 Hrs. 45 Mins.
#211-D $40.00
leerburg.com/211.htm

Many people who love dogs also love horses. Cindy and I fall into this category. Some of us are lucky because our dogs get along with our horses. Not everyone is this lucky though, some dogs are either aggressive to horses or they have such a strong prey drive they can't seem to stop themselves from chasing the horses.

This DVD will help provide those people with enough information to find a solution to their problem. There are so many variables in this work that there is no SINGLE training method that can be used on every dog. Dogs are pack animals. Some dogs simply need to understand that the horses are part of the family pack. Once this is accomplished the dogs accept the horse as a pack member and the problems go away. My DVD explains how to accomplish this.

It is not unheard of for a horse to kill a dog. If you love your dog it's important that you understand the concepts and principles behind the training that is shown in this DVD.

Body Bite Suits Imported from Europe Custom Made

The Finest Quality Suit in the World

My suits are made to my specifications in Belgium. I have not seen a suit sold in this country that comes close to the quality of workmanship in this product.

The craftsmen who make my suits have been willing to work with me to come up with a suit that is designed for police work. A police department has different needs than sport people. Average helpers in police work doesn't have a lot of experience being a helper. We added additional protection for these people.

The bite suit is made of 65% cotton and 35% nylon. Inside is felt lined. Extra padding in the arm pit area, across the back, and in the legs. This results in about 10 more pounds of protection than suits sold by American suppliers.

There are many different styles of bite suits in Europe. There are suits for the French Ring Sport, the KNPV sport, and even IPO suits. My suits are designed for police service & personal protection training. Provides maximum protection in the arms, shoulders, & upper back along with the legs.

All bite suits are special order for a custom fit to your body. It takes 7 to 10 weeks for delivery time.

leerburg.com/1112.htm

This sleeve is made from very durable synthetic material. Great for beginning bite work with puppies as young as 6 weeks. The idea behind using a Puppy Soft Sleeve is to do imprint training to build a strong foundation for your dog. It helps to build confidence and to develop a full grip as well as exposing your dog to different surfaces and textures in bite work.

Young Dog Soft Sleeve

Young Dog Soft Sleeve #785 $ 95.00
leerburg.com/785.htm

This Young Dog Sleeve is the first arm that should be used in bite development. It is softer and easier on young puppies' teeth and mouths. Should be followed with either the Intermediate Soft Sleeve or Jute Puppy Sleeve. Imported from Europe.

Intermediate Soft Sleeve

Intermediate Soft Sleeve #860 $ 135.00
leerburg.com/860.htm

The name for this sleeve can be misleading. This sleeve is made from very durable synthetic material (the same as the material used in body bite suits). In fact, it is similar in design to a sleeve off of a body bite suit. This Intermediate Soft Sleeve is also strong enough to be used with adult dogs, and older puppies. Reinforced stitching in bite area. Imported from Europe.

Jute Soft Sleeve

Jute Soft Sleeve #1900 $ 80.00
leerburg.com/1900.htm

The Jute Soft Sleeve is almost identical to the Young Dog Soft Sleeve, except that it is made from Jute. Jute is a stronger material but it is a little harder on a dog's teeth than synthetic material. The sleeve is ambidextrous and can be used on either arm. This sleeve should not be used with experienced adult dogs.

Hidden Sleeve

Hidden Sleeve #861 $ 132.00
leerburg.com/861.htm

For the final stages of bite training, following a hard arm. Designed to be worn under the helper's clothing. Dogs get used to biting an arm or sleeve that is visible. The hidden sleeve teaches them to bite even if they don't see an arm. Used in police K9 training also. Reinforced stitching. Imported from Europe.

Jute Sleeve Cover with Handle

Hard Arm

Jute Sleeve Cover with Handle #773 $ 35.00
Hard Arm #807-2 $ 150.00
leerburg.com/807a.htm

This arm has a bite bar to facilitate working with young adult dogs. This is the type of arm that is used in Schutzhund trials. The arm does not come with a sleeve cover which is sold separately. If you are new to protection training, this sleeve will not be used on dogs that are younger than 12 months old. Normally a dog has to be at least 12 months for his head and jaw to be big enough to go around this sleeve. The Jute Sleeve Covers are to protect and add life to your Hard Arm. It is better to buy a new cover than a new Hard Arm. This Hard Arm is of superior quality and construction. Imported from Europe.

Jute Puppy Sleeve

Jute Puppy Sleeve #876-1 $ 105.00
leerburg.com/876.htm

Tugs are a must for building drive and focus in young & adult dogs. Top trainers use them throughout the lives of their dogs. They can be used as rewards in narcotics work, in obedience and tracking. Young pups are introduced to tugs when their mouth is big enough to grip. As they grow they will need a larger diameter tug.

In my video "Preparing Your Dog for the Helper," I teach how a handler does all the work in bite development through games he plays with his dog. The bite pillow is a very important part of this training. It is used in the training step after the tug work. If you have a young dog you should have this item. The Mini Bite Pillows are made of synthetic body bite suit material. All bite pillows are imported from Europe.

Prong Collars

Stainless Steel Prong

Stainless Steel Prong Quick Release

Chrome Plated Prong

Chrome Plated Prong Quick Release

I call prong collars "Power Steering for Dogs." It is probably the most misunderstood training tool there is. So many people take one look at it and say "Oh! I could NEVER use that on MY dog!" Then when I explain how it's used and why it's used they call back and say "ED, THIS IS THE GREATEST THING!" When a prong collar is used in training, the handler must realize that a dog who required a level 8 correction before will probably require a level 2 or 3 correction with a prong. So a strong dog with too much drive for a small person to handle is now easily controllable without a lot of effort. If you are a new Schutzhund trainer or a police service dog handler, you will need a prong collar. The advantage of the quick release is the use of the clamp to open and close versus opening a link to remove or put on the collar. The stainless steel quick release is a snap release, and the chrome plated quick release is a clamp release.

How to Fit a Prong Collar

leerburg.com/fit-prong.htm

I train dogs with prong collars. There are very few dogs that I would not train with a prong collar. I recommend them to new dog owners, new trainers and people who own dogs with behavioral problems. While some think a prong looks nasty the fact is they are far more humane than a normal choke collar.

The biggest problem with prong collars is that new dog owners don't know how to put them on, how to size them, or how to have their dog wear them. This article will address these issues.

Normal choke collars need to be ordered by length (i.e. 22 inches long etc.) Prong collars on the other hand are ordered by weight: extra heavy, heavy, light, etc. They all come in a standard length which is adjusted to fit the neck of the dog by removing or adding links to the collar.

Prong collars are meant to be put on and taken off before and after daily training sessions. Unlike a choke collar that is often left on the dog all the time (in some cases this can be a dangerous practice).

A common problem new trainers have is they don't remove enough links to get the correct snug fit. When that happens the collar hangs down on the dogs neck which results in the collar not working the way that it was designed.

This photo below demonstrates a prong collar that was not properly sized for the dog. The collar is too loose and riding too far down on the dog's neck. It should be up where I have drawn the yellow line.

The correct position for a prong collar is to sit right behind the dog's ears and up under the jaw line. This is shown in the photo below.

A perfect safety procedure to use along with a prong collar is a dominant dog collar. I offer this advise to ALL those trainers who use prong collars.

It is not unheard of for a mistake to happen and a prong collar comes apart when you need it the most. By having a dominant dog collar on the dog at the same time as the prong this will never be a problem. Simply attach the clip on the leash to both the prong and the ring on the dominant dog collar. This is shown in the photo below.

When you use your prong collar, we strongly recommend you use a Leerburg® Dominant Dog Collar as a safety backup. Prong collars can come apart. If a leash is clipped to a Leerburg® Dominant Dog Collar along with the prong collar, you will have control of the dog in the rare occurrence that the collar fails.

Dominant Dog Collars vs. Muzzles

Many times people make the decision to use a muzzle on a dog when in fact they should be using a dominant dog collar and a muzzle or in some cases just a dominant dog collar. Muzzles often just cover a dog's problems and do nothing to solve an aggression problem. These people need to learn the difference.

Our dominant dog collars are designed specifically to deal with handler aggressive or dog aggressive dogs. If you have a problem with aggressive or dominant dogs I would recommend that you go to my article section and read what I have written about Dominant and Aggressive dogs at: leerburg.com/articles.htm. I also recommend that you get my DVD on Dealing with Dominant and Aggressive Dogs. leerburg.com/301.htm

More dogs are put to sleep every day for aggression problems than I care to think about. I am the first to agree that some dogs are beyond saving, but many of these dogs could have been retrained and saved. Killing a dog should ALWAYS be a last resort. Using these collars can and will make the difference between having to put a dog down or ending up with a dog the owner can live with.

I recommend that you go to my web site and read the article on "How to Fit the Leerburg Dominant Dog Collar" at leerburg.com/746.htm, and the video on "Dealing with Dominant and Aggressive Dogs" explains in detail how to use this collar and what dogs to use it on.

How to Tattoo Your Puppies

DVD / 35 Min.

#411-D $30.00

leerburg.com/411.htm

I personally prefer to tattoo my pups versus putting a computer chip in them. There are too many kinds of computer chips, and each needs its own chip reader. Anyone can look in the ear of a dog and see that it is tattooed. If anything, I would recommend both a chip and tattoo. This DVD can be yours for free when you purchase the complete set of Hauptner's Tattoo Equipment (See Below).

Hauptner Tattoo Equipment

Hauptner is without a doubt the best dog tattoo equipment in the world. It is manufactured in Germany and is the only tattoo equipment used by all the breed clubs in Europe and in America (i.e. the SV, DOBS, ADRK, SchH USA.) The quality is in every penny spent. (Prices may fluctuate.)

One of the nicest features of the German Shepherd dog is its coat. It's what we call home groomable. All you need are a few basic tools and the knowledge of how to properly use them. This training video gives you that information.

Our 25 minute video takes you step by step through the grooming, bathing, and drying process. The video breaks brushing down into 5 easy steps. We explain in detail how to use each of the grooming tools. We show you how to trim your dog's nails and how to properly clean the inside of the dog's ears. We show the proper way to bathe the dog and the correct way to dry and brush the dog after its bath.

The dog used in the video is Leerburg's® foundation stud dog, Natan Busecker Schloss. Natan has a full dense coat. You will see how a professional bathes and then grooms him. You will also see that this is not a difficult task. It's something every pet owner can learn to do with the help of this training video.

This poly-aluminum knit fabric was developed in Israel and used to reduce the problematic affects caused by the sun. SilverShade acts like a mirror reflecting the sun's rays back into the atmosphere. Other shade materials absorb the sun's radiation and become hot, thus producing heat in an area where cooling is desired. Silver Shade does not absorb heat, it reflects it away, thereby doing a superior job of shading and cooling. Tarps are edged with 2" polypropylene webbing; soft, supple, rot, mold, and mildew resistant - superior to any similar product on the market.

The open weave fabric allows fresh air circulation, provides a canopy that does not fill with water and facilitates an upwards escape for heat and moisture. It was developed for outdoor use, has been used by the military for years, is UV ray protected and very durable. The fabric does not run, tear, or unravel. It's unique features have created an unlimited array of uses for anything under the sun!

DVD - Feeding an All-Natural Diet

DVD
#416-D $24.00
leerburg.com/416.htm

This DVD is scheduled to be released in December 2007.

The goal of this video is to educate the dog owner about the different philosophies of raw feeding. We have been feeding a raw diet to our own dogs since the mid 1990's and our ideas are constantly evolving as we become more educated and experienced. There is no ONE method that is perfect and each dog owner should weigh all the options and make their own decisions based on what is best for each individual situation. We hope that after viewing this video, you will be more prepared and educated on the topic of feeding your dog more naturally.

We will go over the benefits of raw feeding, types of raw feeding methods, commercial diets and why we don't feed them. We will also cover the drawbacks and challenges of feeding a raw diet as well as commonly asked questions and myths.

There will be sections on how and where to shop for your dog's food, how much to feed and how to manage your dog's food while traveling.

We at Leerburg® Kennels have changed the way we feed our dogs. Over the past 25 years of breeding and raising dogs I became more and more concerned about health issues that I saw in my dogs. I believe that we are what we eat and when I researched the ingredients of commercial dog food, I made the decision to feed an all natural diet. By that I mean that I only feed human grade ingredients and I fortify meat and vegetables with human grade supplements. The results have been dramatic. My dogs are healthier, they are more muscular, and have more energy. There has been a dramatic improvement in the temperament of the dogs. For more information on Health Care Products and Animal Diets, please visit our web site at: leerburg.com/diet.htm
