Training Dogs with Food Rewards (2024)

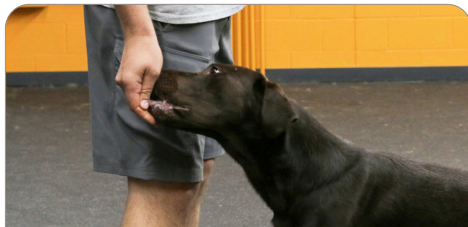

Ed Frawley produced his first dog training DVD in 1982 and focused on food training in 2007. While that initial DVD provided valuable insights, advancements in training techniques prompted a 2024 update with a comprehensive new approach.

This new format includes new handlers working with untrained dogs, creating an interactive seminar experience. By using food rewards effectively, participants will foster a love for training, encouraging their dogs to eagerly engage. This journey not only enhances the bond with their dogs but also equips participants to become better trainers for life, ensuring lasting results in their training efforts.

Training Your Dog to Come When Called - Every Time (2024)

Teaching a reliable recall is essential for your dog's safety. In this course, you'll learn how to train your dog to come when called by focusing on generalization and distraction management. Expect the process to take time—recall training is not a quick fix.

Using positive reinforcement, you'll gradually introduce distractions in comfortable environments, ensuring your dog learns effectively. Every dog is unique, so training methods will have to be tailored based on age, temperament, and previous experiences. Ultimately, you'll foster a strong bond with a dog that instinctively responds to your commands, making outings safer and more enjoyable for both of you.

Course Testimonials

This was a fantastic class. Every module showed me new and fun ways to play games with my dog that are actually building a behavior that I want.

We are playing, having fun, and he is LEARNING! He is learning that being with me is the best place to be. It is a challenge sometimes for me to get the timing right because it makes me so happy to see him learning that I get ahead of myself.

Fortunately, since I now know that SHORT sessions are best, I can keep the mistakes to a minimum and reset for next time. Our favorite right now is the food chase games. He is so food motivated.

Today we got to do the call away exercises with a friend and he learned VERY quickly when she stopped interacting and I called him. She lured him over and over, and each time I was able to call him away. We were both amazed at how quickly it clicked for him and effective this is.

Thank you so much for putting so much time and energy and KNOWLEDGE into all these courses. I am hooked. On to the Marker Training 2024 class next, then Basic Obedience, Intermediate Obedience.

Dealing with Dominant and Aggressive Dogs (2023)

This in-depth online course explores the complexities of dog aggression through detailed lectures, emphasizing understanding its causes and solutions. Designed for aspiring dog trainers, it emphasizes the importance of understanding aggression beyond basic obedience training. Ed Frawley focuses on knowledge rather than live demonstrations, ensuring the well-being of all involved.

Ideal for aspiring trainers and dog owners, the course provides practical strategies for managing and re-training aggressive dogs. Please note, the course is primarily lecture-based, and no refunds will be issued.

Leash Reactivity with Michael Ellis

This course offers over 4 hours of lectures from Michael Ellis focused on managing leash-reactive dogs safely. The goal is to teach handlers effective tools to reduce reactivity without setting up stressful scenarios for the dogs. Michael emphasizes that this is not a course showcasing aggressive behavior; instead, it highlights the importance of understanding leash reactivity without exposing dogs to distress.

Leash reactivity often stems from insecurity, and resolving it requires patience, management, and training. You'll learn to analyze a reactive dog's behavior, identify triggers, and develop strategies to redirect stress with minimal pressure. Trainers will find success with commitment and consistency.

Loose Leash Walking

Tired of your dog pulling you on walks? This course provides a systematic, enjoyable approach to teaching your dog to walk calmly by your side. Designed for both dog owners and trainers, you'll learn everything from building a reward-based foundation to improving leash handling skills. Learn to condition your dog to walk cooperatively, choose the right tools, and use proofing exercises to stay calm in distractions.

By the end of the course, you'll have the confidence to enjoy relaxed walks with your dog. This course focuses specifically on leash walking and does not address behavioral issues like leash reactivity. For those dealing with reactivity, Leerburg offers a separate course with Tyler Muto on that subject. With clear, step-by-step guidance, you'll be able to build a calm, enjoyable walking routine for both you and your dog.

Developing Your Gun Dog Puppy

This course is designed to help you build a strong foundation for your new gun dog puppy. We focus on developing an active, eager, bold, and confident training partner, which is key to having a successful hunting dog. The material is presented in a clear, step-by-step progression, ensuring that each stage of training is simple to follow and easy to understand.

By emphasizing foundational work from Day 1, the program sets you and your puppy up for success, whether you have a retriever, spaniel, or pointing dog. Our goal is to empower you with the knowledge and confidence to progress to more advanced training as your puppy matures, ensuring a solid training partnership for years to come.
